

PASTOR'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Thursday, June 1, is the last day of school. I hope that we all drive carefully throughout the year, but especially during the summer months when more children are outside.

Congratulations to our 49 eighth graders who were graduated on Friday, May 26. I pray that they will do well in high school and beyond. I was impressed with their maturity and with the respect shown their teachers and classmates by this year's class. The following received these awards last Tuesday night:

On May 18 at the sports awards evening in the MPR, the athlete of the year was announced. It is a person who shows good sportsmanship (winning or losing), a good teammate, demonstrates good leadership skills and represents the school well. They have respect toward coaches, referees/umpires, and their teammates. It is NOT the best athlete, nor is it because they play more than one sport. Boys nominate one boy, and girls nominate one girl, but not themselves. All of the coaches nominated an athlete on their team; the 8th grade teachers also nominated an athlete. After the tally, the names were reviewed by the administration to make sure that there were no behavior or academic reasons that may disqualify them. Congratulations to Jonathan Ngoy and Emma Morrissey for winning the Athlete of the Year Award.

On this Sunday, May 28th, Fr. Fred Licciardi is celebrating his 35th anniversary as a priest. Congratulations, Fr. Fred, and thank you for sharing your skills and faith with us.

Mass will be on Memorial Day at 9:00 a.m. We will not have Mass at 7:00 a.m. It is a time for us to remember those who gave their life for our country.

I hope that you and your families have a wonderful and restful Memorial Day weekend.

Rev. Robert C. Rizzo
