WEEKLY HOMILY / HOMILÍA SEMANAL

XXX Sunday O.T.

Today we hear in the Gospel another story of the power of faith. A blind man, Bartimaeus, sought pity from the Lord and asked for healing. He believed that the Son of David could grant what he asked. At the end of the Gospel, Jesus states that it was Bartimaeus' faith that cured him. Bartimaeus is an inspiration to us. So, what would I do, if I were in a similar situation as this blind man? Because the danger at this moment is to believe that there is no escape route for me; there is not a solution to my problem. I'll pray, but I will not receive anything. So many times, we ask the Lord for many things, but with a defeated attitude. Already knowing we won't receive. The Lord is passing by us every Sunday -- indeed every day of our lives -- and he may seem distracted but he is waiting to see how we react. Do we cry aloud all the more, or we just keep the cry for ourselves, feeling full of self-pity afterwards? No, the Lord is waiting to hear us crying as we never have before. Then he will see that our request is supported by our faith, our firm belief the He can do it, that He will do it. And not just the little miracle, but the big miracle: to taste his love, to experience that the only thing we need is His love in our life. That to see or not to see, to be rich or poor, to be healthy or sick, married or single, etc., is not as important as to have Him. To know that the rest "will be given to us by our heavenly father." May God Bless you always.

El Evangelio de este domingo nos presenta una historia donde se ve el poder que tiene la fe. Este evangelio nos presenta a un hombre ciego que está pidiendo limosnas, y que cuando se entera de que Cristo está pasando, comienza a gritar como loco para que se pare y lo escuche, y no solo eso, sino que le conceda una gracia especial. Y tú, ¿eres capaz de gritar y que pienses que eres un poco loco, hasta hacer que Cristo se pare y te escuche? Porque de eso se trata, de hacer que Cristo se pare y te escuche, y así pueda concederte lo que le estas pidiendo. ¿Cuál es la medida de tu fe? Esta fe se mide también de acuerdo a como es tu oración, esa intimidad con el Señor. No solamente la repetición de una serie de formulas aprendidas por tradición, sino de la certeza de que él puede hacerlo, de que si consigo que se pare y me escuche él me hará el favor que le estoy pidiendo. O a lo mejor me he acostumbrado a estar pidiendo un poquito de limosna, un poquito de cariño y con eso me basta. No el Señor nos quiere regalar algo mucho más grande, la fe, que como dice Cristo, puede mover montañas. Imagínese, si puede mover una montaña cuanto más los problemas o necesidades que pueda usted tener. Pidámosle a nuestro Señor que nos conceda una fe como la de este ciego y así poder hacer a Cristo detenerse y concedernos lo que estamos necesitando. Que Dios me los bendiga a todos.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the tangled but fascinating history of penance in the Church, the Irish "tariff" system helped us survive the collapse of the old system of public canonical penance and prepared the way for a new system that emerged in the twelfth century. The old form was unrepeatable, public, dealt with serious community matters, and regulated by the bishops as chief reconcilers. The new form had a more intimate setting of penitent and confessor, was extremely repeatable, and applied to everyone. The old canonical form was closed to children, who were hardly capable of the very grown-up sins listed, or their demanding remedies. The old form was likewise closed to clerics, who were protected in a sense by the very nature of the discipline.

In the new Irish form the penitent directly named sins, or answered direct questions by the priest. Sometimes, the penitent would recite a long formula accusing him- or herself in a general way of all sorts of sins, even from the distant past. Next, priest and penitent together would lie prostrate before the altar and recite several of the psalms with penitential themes. Finally, the priest would pronounce a judgment, deciding what form and duration the penance should take, normally insisting that the person return for reconciliation once the penances were completed.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En varias ocasiones, Jesús le declara al recién sanado: "tu fe te ha salvado" (Marcos 10:52). Todos los cristianos deseamos ser salvados. Y, ¿qué es la salvación? La palabra "salvación" viene del latín salus que también significa "salud". La salvación es el bienestar en todas sus formas. Es el estar bien con Dios, con las demás personas, con la creación y consigo mismo. Los hebreos le llaman shalom y los árabes llaman salam que quiere decir: "paz y bien". Por siglos y hasta el presente, el saludo de los pueblos semitas es: "La paz sea contigo". Se responde "Y también contigo".

Según Jesús este shalom, salam, salus, salvación, paz y bien se consigue por medio de la fe. Hay que tener un deseo profundo de tenerlo, para así pedirlo: "Jesús, Hijo de David, ten piedad de mí" (Marcos 10:47). La salvación no llega a quienes la esperan sentados en una iglesia, más bien, llega a los que se mueven y obran por ella.
