WEEKLY HOMILY / HOMILÍA SEMANAL*Thirtieth Sunday OT/Trigésimo Domingo TO, Ciclo C

Today's Gospel - together with the past two Sundays - forms a trilogy on prayer, especially the greatest prayer: the sacrifice of the Mass. Two week's ago the Gospel focused on thanksgiving. Jesus praised the Samaritan leper because he returned to express thanks. In Greek, to thank someone is "Eucharist." The Mass, the "Eucharist" is the great prayer of gratitude to the Giver of all good gifts. Last Sunday we heard about another aspect of prayer: persistence, not growing weary, but keeping at it. Persistence also applies to the Mass. If the Mass is the highest form of prayer, we must keep at it - weekly or even daily. Today's Gospel speaks about our posture at Mass. I am not talking about kneeling, standing and sitting. I am talking about a much deeper posture. We see it in the tax collector. He acknowledged who God is - and the distance between him and God. And he accepted responsibility for his own failings, "O, God, be merciful to me, a sinner." We do not come to Mass to tell God how great we are. The Pharisee did that - and we do have to admit that he was a very good man. Yet he did not go home justified, whereas the tax collector did. The tax collector had the right posture before God. The prayers of the Mass can help us attain that posture. We begin Mass by calling to mind our sins. It does not have to be a detailed examination of conscience, but a simple recognition of the truth. And the truth is this: I have blown it. I have fallen on my face. Maybe it happened this very week. Maybe it happened some time ago and I am still living with the consequences. As my dad would say, "You have no one to blame but yourself." And so we say, "Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord have mercy. That was the posture of the tax collector. We begin Mass with that posture and it sets the tone for rest of the Mass. The readings, if we listen carefully, always call us to some change, what the Bible calls "repentance." The Prayers of the Faithful express our need for God. During the Eucharistic Prayer we kneel. Kneeling expresses receptivity. St. Paul says that he kneels before God the Father from whom every blessing comes. Before Communion we say, "Lord, I am not worthy." Who is? Only a Pharisee would think he deserves to receive something so incredible - the Body and Blood of Jesus. To sum up: 1) The Mass is the great prayer of thanksgiving. 2) That prayer requires persistence - daily personal prayer and the Eucharist at least every Sunday. 3) And when we attend Mass we take the posture of the tax collector - we accept our responsibility for failings and recognize who we are and who God is. Amen. May God bless you always.

El Evangelio de hoy, nos llama a hacer una reflexión interior de cómo me presento yo ante Dios, y ante los hombres. Tenemos estos dos personajes tan dispares y diferentes entre ellos, que no se podían tolerar el uno al otro. Primero esta el fariseo, hombre cumplidor de la ley con todos sus preceptos, y eso que en la ley Mosaica son muchísimos los preceptos por que regulan todos los aspectos de la vida diaria de cada persona, desde que se levanta hasta que se acuesta. Pero este hombre, que se cree auto suficiente por que aparentemente cumple los preceptos de la ley, tiene un "pequeño" defectillo, si podemos llamarlo pequeño, que es orgulloso, y se jacta de lo bien que lo hace todo, pero se ha olvidado de algo muy importante, que es la segunda parte de la ley del Sinaí. Dios en la montaña sagrada le dice a su pueblo: "Escucha Israel, Amarás al Señor tu Dios con todo tu corazón, con toda tus fuerzas y con toda tu mente, y al prójimo como a ti mismo." Este hombre se está amando a sí mismo, se alaba, reconoce todo lo que hace, pero no ama a su prójimo, al que no está cerca de él, sino que lo juzga y lo condena, "No soy como ese publicano, no yo cumple la ley..." Sin embargo, el pobrecito publicano, que reconoce lo que es, un desgraciado, traicionero, uno que engaña y roba, un ladino y mentiroso, pero con esta actitud de reconocer quien y que es, por que no lo puede ocultar, todo el mundo lo conoce, por esta razón puede pedir 'Misericordia.' Este hombre no se puede esconder, todos lo conocen, y el mismo se conoce, por eso delante de Dios solo le queda pedir, mendigar por la misericordia, ya que nadie lo es con él. El que sabe que Dios es justo juez y implacable con los pecadores, como nos cuenta la primera lectura del libro del Eclesiástico. Sabe que delante de este juez severo, solo hay una forma de ganarse su favor, que es apelando a su ternura, con sinceridad, no como una estratagema, por eso ni si quiera es capaz de acercarse a los primeros puestos, sino que se queda atrás del todo esperando a que lo rescaten. Y él, el publicano, sabe muy bien que Yahvé, defensor de huérfanos y viudas, de los pequeños e indefensos se apiadara de él, y como consecuencia de este acto de humildad recibe misericordia, perdón y justificación, mientras que la arrogancia y el orgullo del fariseo no. Así que hermanos míos, pidamos al Señor del mundo, que podamos recibir esta gracia, la de reconocer quienes somos y poder presentarnos ante Dios en humildad y sencillez, por que si somos buenos e intachables no es por nuestros propios méritos, sino por que Dios nos ha concedido la gracia de poder serlo. Y si por el contrario somos un poco más parecidos al publicano pidamos con la insistencia de la viuda del evangelio del domingo pasado, la gracia de ser humildes, reconocerlo y así poder sentirnos amados por Dios. Que Dios me los bendiga a todos y a sus familias.

CHURCH RENOVATIONS

Our goal for Church renovations (painting and carpeting) is $75,000. So far we have collected $58,891. Your extra donation will go entirely for this purpose. We are asking that each family donates $200 to help beautify our Church. Thank you for your generosity.

RENOVACIONES DE LA IGLESIA

Nuestro objetivo para las renovaciones de la Iglesia (pintura y alfombras) es de $75,000. Hasta ahora hemos recaudado $58,891. Su donación adicional se destinará íntegramente a este fin. Pedimos que cada familia dona 200 dólares para ayudar a embellecer nuestra Iglesia. Gracias por tu generosidad.

Pentecost

Pentecost is the Sending of the Holy Spirit from God the Father. It is the transformation of man from sinner to holy. It is the birth of the Church, Communion between men. The Holy Spirit makes appear on earth the revelation of the celestial communion between the Holy Trinity. The Apostles are seated in a circle. They are in the same level, and they are the same size, it represents the harmony of unity, a gift of the Holy Spirit. Each apostle received personally a tongue of fire, which means that the Holy Spirit is given in a unique and personal way to each one. The Holy Spirit Diversify and make each one "Charismatic," without creating a relativism chaos. The Unity in the Diversity is only possible when the Holy Spirit Acts. The Twelve Apostles are sign of the Twelve Tribes of Israel. At the right of the Virgin Mary, is seated St. Peter, and at her left St. Paul. As we know St. Paul does not belong to the college of the twelve apostles, but because his importance and relevance of his work of Evangelization is included among the apostles in the traditional iconography. The Image personage dress as a King, at the bottom of the icon, represent the multitude of people, the church in a liturgical context. The King was always at the center of the liturgy, after the deacon or the priest takes that place. This is a representation of the liturgy of the Word, during the announcement of Peter in the midst of Jerusalem witnessing that the word was made flesh. Some authors identified the king with the prophet Joel. In the Icon there are two levels, at the top there is the New Creation, made by the Holy Spirit, to which the humanity hope for. And at the bottom the Holy Spirit enter into action, through the Evangelization, in order to liberate and transform the Cosmos, whish is prisoner of death. The Virgin Mary is at the middle of the Apostles, it represent that the one who received the Holy Spirit at the moment of the conception, was not present at the moment of Pentecost, showing in this way, the mystery of the spiritual birth of every human being. The two symmetrical towers are the representation in perspective that the Pentecost scene is done in the upper room of the Cenacle, place that after the resurrection became the meeting place of the apostles. The church meets in the Unity, in Charity, in the service to one another, and above all in the Eucharist, the only source of all the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Pentecostés

Pentecostés transforma al hombre de pecador en santo. Es la fiesta del nacimiento de la Iglesia, comunión entre los hombres. El Espíritu Santo hace aparecer sobre la tierra la revelación de la comunión celestial de las tres personas divinas. Los apóstoles sentados forman un arco. Todos están en el mismo plano y son del mismo tamaño, es la armonía de la unidad, don del Espíritu Santo. Cada apóstol recibe "personalmente" una lengua de fuego. El Espíritu Santo se da en modo único y personal a cada uno. Él es el que diversifica y hace a cada uno "carismático", sin por ello crear un relativismo caótico. La unidad en la diversidad es sólo posible cuando el Espíritu Santo actúa.

El icono muestra el colegio de los doce apóstoles, signo de las doce tribus de Israel. A la derecha de la Virgen está San Pedro y a la izquierda San Pablo. Éste, como sabemos, no pertenece al colegio de los doce, pero por la magnitud e importancia de su obra de evangelización, es incluido por la tradición iconográfica entre los apóstoles. Cada apóstol tiene en su mano un rollo, símbolo de la predicación de la Buena Noticia.

El personaje vestido de rey, en la parte inferior del icono, no ha tenido en la tradición iconográfica un significado único. Parece haber tomado forma a partir del siglo X, anteriormente se representaba una muchedumbre de gentes, que son los pueblos de distintas lenguas y nacionalidades. Cosmos (el Mundo). El Viejo Rey es una imagen simbólica que evoca el conjunto de pueblos y naciones. Está rodeado de un arco negro, signo de que el universo está prisionero del principio de este mundo y de la muerte. El cosmos tiene en sus manos un paño con doce rollos, símbolo de la predicación de los doce apóstoles y de la Iglesia.

En el icono hay dos niveles: arriba, está ya la "nueva creación", realizada por el Espíritu Santo y a la cual aspira la humanidad: abajo, el Espíritu Santo entra en acción con la evangelización para liberar y transformar el cosmos prisionero de la muerte. La Virgen aparece en el centro de los apóstoles. No era, de hecho, posible que Aquella que había recibido el Espíritu Santo en el momento de la concepción, no estuviese presente cuando el Espíritu Santo bajó sobre los apóstoles. El icono de Pentecostés muestra también de esta manera el misterio del nacimiento espiritual del hombre.

En la parte superior del icono están pintadas lateralmente dos casas, con torres simétricas y similares. Se quiere dar a entender que la escena se desarrolla en el "piso alto" del Cenáculo, donde tuvo lugar la Última Cena; de modo que la escena del Don de las lenguas de fuego es don del Sacramento de la Unidad (la Iglesia nace de la Eucaristía), que es Sacramento de la Caridad. Este lugar se convirtió después de la Resurrección, en el lugar de reunión de los Apóstoles. En la unidad, en la caridad concreta, en el servicio..., y, sobre todo, en la Eucaristía, única fuente de estos Dones.
