WEEKLY HOMILY / HOMILÍA SEMANAL

Twentieth-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time/Domingo Veintinueve Tiempo Ordinario

Always we have been told that with a great power comes a great responsibility. This is one of the aspects that today's Gospel deals with. The sons of Zebedee, James and John wanted to ask Jesus a great favor, to be seated one at his right hand and the other to his left, these places are places of honor in whatever government. At the beginning, they made this request just to secure the places of privilege, the pull position, in a short-term future, because Christ has already announced to them his pending passion. But Jesus instead of arguing with them, and correct them, he answered them with tenderness and elegance: "You do not know what you are asking for, you are going to drink the chalice that I am going to drink, or are you ready to be baptized with the same baptism with which I am going to be baptized with? They answered: "We are." So Christ seeing their availability, which has surpassed their desires for greatness and power, invites them to martyrdom, and he is not securing these places to them, because they are already reserved to those whom the father has reserved those places since the creation of the world. Jesus invites them to put themselves to the service of the others, to submit their will to the will of the others apostles, James will be a martyr and John is going to be exiled to Pathmos with the Virgin Mary. Both of them are going to drink from the same cup and be baptized with the same baptism of Jesus Christ. Let's continue with the rest of the apostles, , they were indignant toward the two brothers, not because of their request, but because they went ahead of them, they were envious of the brothers Zebedee, because the apostles were human, and were imperfect at that time.. For this reason, Christ is inviting them and us to serve the others, to submit our will to that of our neighbor. So my dear brothers and sisters, let us not look for worldly honors, but instead let us look for the last place, so God himself will approach us to go at the head of the table in his kingdom. May God bless you always.

Siempre se nos has dicho que con un gran poder viene una gran responsabilidad. Esto es lo que expresa el Evangelio de hoy. Los Hijos de Zebedeo, Juan y Santiago, van a pedirle a Cristo que les otorgue un gran favor, que se puedan sentar uno a su derecha y el otro a su izquierda, los lugares de honor en cualquier tipo de gobierno. Al principio solo lo hacen por asegurarse las primeras posiciones en un futuro no muy lejano, ya que Cristo ya les ha anunciado su pasión. Pero Cristo no los regaña, sino que con mucha delicadeza los quiere llevar a una realidad mucho mas elevada y sublime de la que están pidiendo, por esto, les responde con ternura y elegancia: "No sabéis lo que estáis pidiendo, ¿Podéis beber el cáliz que yo voy a beber? O ¿Ser bautizados con el bautismo con el que me van a bautizar?" Y ellos respondieron, "Si lo beberemos y Si somos capaces de bautizarnos." Cristo viendo la disponibilidad que ha sobrepasado su ansia de poder les invita de esta forma tan elegante al martirio, pero no les asegura el primer lugar, ya que estos puestos ya están reservados desde la creación del mundo. Pero, les esta invitando al servicio, a ponerse por debajo de los demás, a someterse a otros, Santiago será de los primeros mártires de la iglesia y Juan será exilado a Pathmos, junto con María, la Virgen. Los dos van a beber el Cáliz del Martirio y van a ser bautizados con la sangre del cordero. Continuemos con los demás apóstoles, estos se indignaron por la petición de los hijos de Zebedeo, pero no lo hicieron por humildad, sino por que se les habían adelantado, al fin y al cabo, los apóstoles son seres de carne y hueso. Por esta razón, Cristo los exhorta al servicio, al martirio diario de someter la voluntad propia por la del prójimo. Por esto mis queridos hermanos, no busquemos los honores del mundo, pero busquemos el ultimo lugar, para que así nos horre el Mismo Dios y nos diga:" Animo amigo! Sube mas adelante," por que el ultimo lugar no te pertenece, ya esta ocupado por mi único hijo que ha dado su vida por la salvación de los hombres. Que Dios los bendiga siempre y en todo lugar a vosotros y a vuestras familias.
