WEEKLY HOMILY / HOMILÍA SEMANAL

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time/Domingo Treinta y Tres Tiempo Ordinario

According to the Orthodox tradition, today is the beginning of Advent, the time to await the arrival of the Messiah. The Orthodox has six weeks of Advent, while we the Catholics only have four. To prepare ourselves well for the coming of the Messiah, the readings of today invite us to be prepared and alert for “the great and terrible day,” “in which they will be great signs, the sun will darken, the moon will lose its brilliance, the stars will fall from heaven, and the archangel, Michael, will initiate a battle in heaven.” This apocalyptic vision of the prophet Daniel, which is also reflect my Christ in the Gospel, want to manifest something very subtle and which passes almost unheeded in our lives. If we have heard the word correctly, then we know that everything that occurs in heaven, affects the earth. Why? Because we, always with good intention, create our gods and idols; in whatever manner we wish to call them, they are there in heaven, which is the place of God. For this reason, we must ask ourselves today: Who or what is the sun that enlightens and warms me? Who are those stars that give or provide my well being? Because in the end all these will disappear to give to the true “Sun of Justice,” which is the name that St. Justin gives to Christ, the messiah. This Word is a word of mercy and it only wants to prepare us for the coming of the King of kings, Chris the Savior, and so, we do not have to lament the day of his glorious coming and in this we can be part of St. Michael’s army which does battle against the enemy who only seeks and desire our perdition or damnation. May God bless you always.

Según la tradición Ortodoxa, hoy empieza el adviento, el tiempo de espera para la llegada del Mesías. Ellos, los ortodoxos, tienen seis semanas de adviento, y nosotros, los católicos, solamente cuatro. Para prepararnos bien para la llegada del Mesías, las lecturas de hoy nos invitan a estar preparados y alerta para “Aquel día grande y terrible, “en el que se darán señales portentosas, el sol se oscurecerá, la luna perderá su resplandor, las estrellas caerán del cielo, y el arcángel Miguel, entablara un combate en el cielo. Esta visión apocalíptica del profeta Daniel, y también reflejada por Cristo en el Evangelio, quieren poner de manifiesto algo que es muy sutil y pasa casi inadvertido en nuestras vidas. Si hemos escuchado bien, todo eso ocurrirá en el cielo y todo afectara a la tierra, ¿Por qué? Porque nosotros, siempre con buena intención, hacemos que nuestros dioses o ídolos, como los queramos llamar, estén ahí en el cielo, que es el lugar de Dios. Por esto, debemos preguntarnos hoy ¿Qué o quién es el sol que me ilumina y da calor? ¿Qué o quienes son las estrellas que me darán o aventuraran el porvenir? Porque todo eso desaparecerá para dar lugar al verdadero “Sol de Justicia,” como llama San Justino a Cristo, el Masías. Esta Palabra es una palabra de misericordia y solo quiere que nos preparemos para la llegada del Rey de reyes, Cristo el Salvador, y así, no tener que lamentarnos el día de su venida gloriosa y así poder ser parte del ejercito de San Miguel para luchar contra el enemigo que solo busca y quiere nuestra perdicción. Que Dios me los bendiga siempre.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Although our Puritan forebears at Plymouth Rock were almost a hundred years removed from their Catholic roots, the old liturgical calendar still had an unconscious claim on their hearts. We've already seen how on Saint Martin's Day, November 11, medieval continental Europe observed a great harvest day of Thanksgiving, with games, dances, parades, and a festive dinner of roast goose. With the goose went ample draughts of "Saint Martin's Wine," the first wine of the new harvest. Martinmas celebrated full barns and larders stocked for the winter. Even after the Reformation, the tradition of eating goose on Saint Martin's Day was retained in Holland, and it was there that our Pilgrims encountered this tradition. When Governor Bradford sent four hunters out into the Massachusetts wilderness in the autumn of 1621, they did indeed find some geese and ducks, and were persuaded by the indigenous people to try turkey, too.

Just as the liturgical calendar has been tweaked over the years, President Roosevelt moved Thanksgiving to the third Thursday in November in 1939, probably to extend the Christmas shopping season. The protest was so great that in 1941 the day established by President Lincoln, the last Thursday in November, was restored. If the Pilgrims had known of the Martinmas connection, they might never have celebrated at all!

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El 19 de noviembre del 1969 (Día del Descubrimiento de Puerto Rico), el Papa Pablo VI declaró a Nuestra Señora Madre de la Divina Providencia, como patrona de la Isla del Encanto. Este acto fue el culmen de un largo proceso devocional hacia la Madre de la Divina Providencia empezado por el obispo Catalán Gil Esteve y Tomás quien trajo la primera imagen de la Virgen a la isla Boricua.

La imagen actual es de María sentada con su Hijo (la Divina Providencia) dormido sobre su regazo. Ella sostiene la manita izquierda del niño en sus manos mientras lo mira cariñosamente. La imagen inspira ternura y muestra la confianza de María en la Divina Providencia de su Hijo, que aunque este dormido, no se descuida de ella ni de los fieles.

Esta imagen recuerda el pasaje bíblico en el cual Jesús dormía en la barca de Pedro, despertando a tiempo para calmar los mares y los vientos que la amenazaban. He aquí que la devoción a la Madre de la Divina Providencia es confiar que Dios siempre llega a nuestro amparo cuando lo invocamos.
