Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King

NOVEMBER 25, 2018

Daniel 7:13-14; Revelation 1:5-8;
John 18:33b-37

What difference does Jesus Christ make in your life? When you are at work or at play, does your faith in him make you any different from others? When you are relaxing with friends, or when you are enjoying recreation, are you any different because you know Christ Jesus?

Jesus Christ should be the meaning of every dimension of our lives. We don't always need to voice this; it's often better that we don't. But people should see in our lives the reflection of Jesus Christ. They should see that we live entirely for him, and that he is the reason for everything we do.

The Feast of Christ the King was instituted in 1925 (in the "Roaring Twenties") when civic and social life was divorced entirely from religion. It was the time of the rise of Totalitarian dictatorships. Among religious people, it was a time of sentimentality without substance.

We claim Christ as our King: All laws of nations must be subject to his moral reign. We claim Christ as our King: We cannot be content with mere sentimentality in our private religion; we are called to profess our faith publicly and boldly.

Our first reading is from Daniel. Jesus used the title "Son of Man." Today's reading speaks of one "like a Son of Man" coming on the clouds of heaven and standing between earth and heaven.

Our second reading describes Jesus Christ as the ruler of all the kings of the earth. The Gospel is ironic: Jesus has been beaten; yet he proclaims that he is King. His kingship is dedicated to proclaiming truth, justice, righteousness, and mercy. He will die for this, but death cannot be victorious. He will always triumph. Let us renew our loyalty to Christ our King in every dimension of our lives.

MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of God in St. Pius X Church, Shreveport, LA., choose to serve God faithfully in our commitment to evangelize, to catechize, and to build community with the people of North Shreveport. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we are empowered to build God's Kingdom by living and learning more deeply the Word of God and regularly participating in the Sacraments. We cherish the Traditions of the Roman Catholic Church. We shall promote peace and justice, as we strive to develop leadership who will continue the ministry of Jesus Christ. By accomplishing this, we build up the Body of Christ, the Church.
