St. Robert Bellarmine Parish Thanks
Tim Kearney

John 12:26 If anyone serves Me, he must follow Me; and where I am, there My servant will be also; if anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him.

It is amazing what God can do with the life of an obedient soul. Tim Kearney was that obedient soul. He was a man with a servant's heart. Tim didn't just look around and see things that needed to be done; he jumped in and took action. Tim had a strong and cooperative work ethic, no matter how big or small the chore or whether behind the scenes – shopping and cooking for various Knights' events, helping prepare the RCIA schedule and to facilitate weekly sessions, decorating – especially during Holy Week, sitting on various committees, preparing quarterly financial reports. He devoted himself to the Knights of Columbus, liturgy committee, environment, lecturing and RCIA. Tim worked tirelessly in the office organizing sacramental records and preparing certificates. Tim was passionate and loyal to our Catholic faith, our parish and his family and friends. He loved sharing his knowledge and experiences and has a positive, faith-filled outlook on life and toward other people. Tim had a brusque tone but a huge smile for everyone. When he asked how you were, he sincerely wanted to know. Tim touched many lives.

Tim's graveside service will be at the Veteran's Cemetary on Monday, July 15th @ 10am.
