

Share the Journey: Yours and Mine

“Not long after his death, Jesus appeared to two disciples on the road to Emmaus. They were full of fear following Jesus’s death. They didn’t recognize Jesus until they sat down for a meal together and he broke bread.”

What would it be like for you, for me, to travel on the road to Emmaus? Any idea who would walk with us and might join us along the way? Could it be family, friends, neighbors or perhaps some we do not yet know? Just who might these new walkers be? Let’s find out.

There are many among us who feel so alone, no one to walk life’s journey with them. There is no one to share birthdays, holidays or just something fun like a walk in the park.

How does this happen? It could be due to the difficulties in their homeland drove them to leave to a new country. They were searching for peace, safety and basic needs available by working, sharing their faith and caring for their family. Remember the Holy Family, too, had to flee for safety and it remains true for many today.

Could we change this as we join others in this life’s journey if we knew them? Let’s make it happen! There is a place at the table to reach out to others who have had a different life journey than yours or mine who could be a new friend for the next part of the journey. Come “Share the Journey: Yours and Mine.”
