Consultation:

On the day of the first lesson or before the first lesson, a 15-minute consultation can take place, as scheduled by your instructor. This consultation will be for the purpose of picking a style and a song if not already selected. Also this time can be used for answering any questions you may have (this may also be done via email or text). If picking a song takes longer than the allotted 15 minutes, this will continue into the allotted hour of the lesson. Please let your instructor know if you wish to schedule a consultation.

Please list your top three instructor preferences:

We will do our best to consider your preference when placing you with an instructor we feel fits you best. After august or later, we will have your duet/trio choreographer contact you to discuss details of your routine.
