

Fr. Ted's Corner

From the commentary on the second letter to the Corinthians by Saint Cyril of Alexandria, bishop

(Cap. 5, 5-6, 2: PG 74, 942-943)

God has reconciled us to himself through Christ

And given us the ministry of reconciliation

Those who have a sure hope, guaranteed by the Spirit, that they will rise again lay hold of what lies in the future as though it were already present. They say: Outward appearances will no longer be our standard in judging other men. Our lives are all controlled by the Spirit now, and are not confined to this physical world that is subject to corruption. The light of the Only-begotten has shone on us, and we have been transformed into the Word, the source of all life. While sin was still our master, the bonds of death had a firm hold on us, but now that the righteousness of Christ has found a place in our hearts we have freed ourselves from our former condition of corruptibility.

What is RIGHTEOUSNESS?

Described:

D. Righteousness causes us to seek God's approval above everything else

Jesus said: "But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be provided for you" (Mt. 6:33)

First Holy Communion

"As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you.
 Now remain in my love. If you obey my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have obeyed
 my Father's commands and remain in his love.
 I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete.
 My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you.
