

Fr. Ted's Corner

From the beginning of the treatise On the Mysteries by Saint Ambrose, bishop (Nn. 1-7: SC 25 vis, 156-158)

Now the season reminds us that we must speak of the mysteries, setting forth the meaning of the sacraments. If we had thought fit to teach these things to those not yet initiated baptism, we should be considered traitors rather than teachers. Then, too, the light of the mysteries is of itself more effective where people do not know what to expect than where some instruction have been given beforehand. Open then your ears. Enjoy the fragrance of eternal life, breathed on you by means of the sacraments. We explained this to you as we celebrated the mystery of "the opening" when we said: Effetha, that is, be opened. Everyone who was to come for the grace of baptism had to understand what he was to be asked, and must remember what he was to answer. The mystery was celebrated by Christ when he healed the man who was deaf and dumb, in the Gospel which we proclaimed to you. There you saw the Levite, you saw the priest, you saw the high priest. Do not consider their outward form but the grace given by the ministries. You spoke in the presence of angels, as it is written: The lips of the priest guard knowledge, and men seek the law from his mouth, for he is the angel of the Lord almighty. There is no room for deception, no room for denial. He is an angel whose message is the kingdom of Christ and eternal life. You must judge him, not by his appearance but by his office. Remember what he handed on to you, weigh up his value, and so acknowledge his standing.

O Lord,
Who has mercy upon all
take away from me
my sins
and mercifully
kindle in me
the fire
of Your Holy Spirit.
Take away from me
the heart of stone
and give me
a heart of flesh,
a heart to love
and adore You,
a heart
to delight in You
to follow
and enjoy You,
for Christ's sake.
Amen
