

Fr. Ted's Corner

From a letter to the Corinthians by Saint Clement, pope

(Cap. 19, 2—20, 12: Funk 1, 87-89)

In his goodness to all, God gives order and harmony to the world

Let us fix our gaze on the Father and Creator of the whole world, and let us hold on to his peace and blessings, his splendid and surpassing gifts. Let us contemplate him in our thoughts and with our mind's eye reflect upon the peaceful and restrained unfolding of his plan; let us consider the care with which he provides for the whole of his creation.

By his direction the heavens are in motion, and they are subject to him in peace. Day and night fulfill the course he has established without interfering with each other. The sun, the moon and the choirs of stars revolve in harmony at his command in their appointed paths without deviation. By his will the earth blossoms in the proper seasons and produces abundant food for men and animals and all the living things on it without reluctance and without any violation or what he has arranged.

Yet unexplored regions of the abysses and inexpressible realms of the deep are subject to his laws. The mass of the boundless sea, joined together by his ordinance in a single expanse, does not overflow its prescribed limits but flows as he commanded it. For he said: Thus far shall you come, and your waves will be halted here. The ocean, impassable for men, and the worlds beyond it are governed by the same edicts of the Lord.

Youth News Locally and Around the Archdiocese

Locally

2018 is flying by. In a couple of weeks we will celebrate the feast of All Saints and All Souls. With Halloween candy everywhere, sugar rushes will be of epidemic proportions. What must our saints and souls think of us? In the midst of our sugar feast our K-5 students are encouraged to think of a saint they might want to be or represent at the class Halloween party on the 29th and the 31st. Parents are encouraged to help with ideas and refreshments for the parties.

Around the Archdiocese

- The 38th Annual Archdiocesan Youth Conference is scheduled for October 26-27, 2018 in Albuquerque. Scholarships are available and this retreat can be used as a confirmation retreat. The deadline for registration is Friday October 12, 2018. For more info contact the DRE.
- Holy Cross Parish in Espanola will again be hosting a Confirmation retreat this spring from April 5-7, 2019. The Friars of Renewal will be leading this retreat. There are some spacing issues so it will be important to know how many of you may want to attend as soon as possible.
