

Fr. Ted's Corner

From a discourse on the Psalms by Saint Augustine, bishop
(Ps. 94, 14. 15: CCL 39, 1351-1343)

What then should the Christian do? He ought to use the world, not become its slave. And what does this mean? It means having, as though not having. So says the Apostle: My brethren, the appointed time is short: from now on let those who have wives live as though they had none; and those who mourn as though they were not mourning; and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing; and those who buy as though they had no goods; and those who deal with this world as though they had no dealings with it. For the form of this world is passing away. But I wish you to be without anxiety. He who is without anxiety waits without fear until his Lord comes. For what sort of love of Christ is it to fear his coming? Brothers, do we not have to blush for shame? We love him, yet we fear his coming. Are we really certain that we love him? Or do we love our sins more? Therefore let us hate our sins and love him who will exact punishment for them. He will come whether we wish it or not. Do not think that because he is not coming just now, he will not come at all. He will come, you know not when; and provided he finds you prepared, your ignorance of the time of his coming will not be held against you.

He will judge the world with equity and the peoples in his truth. What are equity and truth? He will gather together with him for the judgment his chosen ones, but the others he will set apart; for he will place some on his right, others on his left. What is more equitable, what more true than that they should not themselves expect mercy from the judge, who themselves were unwilling to show mercy before the judge's coming. Those, however, who were willing to show mercy will be judged with mercy. For it will be said to those placed on his right: Come, blesses of my Father, take possession of the kingdom which has been prepared for you from the beginning of the world. And he reckons to their account their works of mercy. For I was hungry and you gave me to eat; I was thirsty and you gave me to drink.

Youth News Locally and Around the Archdiocese

Locally

As the holidays creep closer I just wanted to post a reminder of the holiday schedule. Our schedule is generally centered around the schedule for the Chama Valley School District. That being said,

- November
  - 21st – No class for Students in Chama.
  - 25th - Middle School and Confirmation teachers will be determined if they are having classes and notify their parents and students if they are not.
- December
  - 18th – will be the last day of class for the year
- The Thanksgiving Day Luncheon hosted by La Clinica at San Jose Parish Hall is a great way for Confirmation students to earn service hours. I know that most families have a lot going on but it is worth considering giving a few hours of your time to serve your community and the food is great too.

Around the Archdiocese

There are several confirmation retreats sponsored by the Archdiocese of Santa Fe. Most are in Albuquerque however a new one has been scheduled for Espanola which gives us two choices closer to home.

- April 5-7, 2019 Santa Cruz (for which I am still waiting for more information)
- March 30, 2019 Sacred Heart Parish (9:30 am – 3:00 pm) Registration applications can be obtained from the DRE.
