

For The Sick:

Father of goodness and love, hear our prayers for those who are sick. Amid physical and mental suffering, may they find consolation in Your healing presence with them. Show Your loving care as illness is faced, wounds close, broken bodies become whole and downcast spirits take on hope and peace again. May these friends and relatives find a growing health and so join us in thanking You for all Your gifts. We ask this through the Lord Jesus, divine physician and healer of souls, minds, and bodies. Amen.

In My Sickness:

Lord Jesus, while You were on earth You went among people doing good and curing the sick, and You said that You came to bring abundant life. In my sickness now, I need faith in Your presence with me, even though I may not understand what is happening to me. Keep me now from losing hope as I face once again my infirmity. Lord, let this suffering pass from me, but not my will but Yours be done. Take me into Your gentle embrace, as I offer my prayers, works, joys, and suffering of this day in union with You in Your death and resurrection. Amen.

For Those Who Care For Me:

Almighty God, You bestow Your gifts upon us in many ways, often through other people; so I pray for those in my life who take time and effort to help me. Lord, may I see You in them and in their assistance, even when I am hurting and downcast. Send Your blessing upon them and shelter them in the shadow of Your wings, out of the love of Christ and in the strength of Your Spirit. Amen.
