17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you." This is a promise that anyone would love to hear. With these words Jesus comforts and reassures us. He suggests that we will be satisfied and welcomed and fulfilled. His message in today's Gospel assures us that our heavenly Father loves us even more than earthly parents love their children. So we can enjoy the security of knowing that God will take good care of us.

But God's care may not always look exactly the way we expect it to. His care for us is based on knowing what is best for us and what will make us flourish. And, sometimes, what we think we need isn't really best. It's important to keep this context in mind. This prevents us from understanding Jesus' words today in a selfish way. As the end of the passage makes clear, this asking and seeking that Jesus refers to is ultimately fulfilled in the gift of the Holy Spirit. Jesus is promising us that if we ask God for his Spirit, he will certainly give it to us, his children.

For most of us, we actually received this gift at our baptism. But have we taken full advantage of this? Although we may not realize it at first, in receiving the Holy Spirit we actually receive a whole host of gifts. With God's Spirit come the sevenfold gifts of wisdom, understanding, counsel, knowledge, fortitude, piety, and fear of the Lord. And the fruits of the Spirit as St. Paul lists them in Galatians 5 include love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. God knows that all of these gifts and fruits make us very well equipped for life on earth, and for eternal life in heaven! What more do we really need to ask for?

ST. FREDERIC PILGRIMAGE TO THE GROTTA

On Saturday, July 9th, parishioners from St. Frederic journeyed together to the National Sanctuary of our Sorrowful Mother (a.k.a.) "The Grotto" for a Pilgrimage. This group of 27 was comprised of a healthy mix of parishioners, from young children to long-time Catholics, men and women, and of several ethnic backgrounds. In short, the group was very well represented of the wonderful diversity we have in our church community. We learned about the history of The Grotto and the Servite Community in Portland, spent time in the astonishing Meditation Chapel hanging over the edge of the cliff, and toured the upper gardens, pausing periodically to recite a decade of the rosary.

The most sacramental part of the day followed, with time for Reconciliation and prayer in the Chapel of Mary, after which we met outside that chapel and processed in through the designated "Holy Doors" to mark this as a special retreat in this Jubilee Year of Mercy proclaimed by Pope Francis, not just a group tour of a local landmark. Father Marandu officiated at Mass, and it was particularly striking how many people outside of our group took advantage of the chance to participate in the Eucharistic celebration (this was also true for confessions, earlier). It made us realize how blest we are to have a pastor and volunteers that consider this type of event worth planning!

Finally, we shared lunch outside, during what turned out to be beautiful weather in spite of the meteorologists' predictions, and carpooled back to St. Helens. We returned to a regular Saturday in progress, but with clean souls, renewed joy in our hearts, and deeper camaraderie with each other. What more could a person ask for when reflecting on how one spent the day?
