33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"You will even be handed over by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends, and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name." This is not a pleasant prophecy. On the contrary, Jesus' somber words may strike us with a bit of fear and make us wonder if we will ever actually face such a tragic scenario. We are fortunate to live in a country where religious freedom is tolerated, and of course we hope that this continues to be the case. But the sad fact is that right now, there are Christians in other parts of the world who are living out the reality of these prophetic words. For these men, women, and children of faith, the name of Jesus truly is a cause of persecution and martyrdom.

Let us imagine for a moment that the tables were turned. Suppose we were the ones suffering from the violent advances of anti-Christian forces. Suppose we were the ones losing our homes, fleeing for our lives, tending to our wounded loved ones, or worse. Where would we look for help? To other Christians, most likely, to those who would sympathize with our commitments but who still had the resources to assist us.

We ARE those other Christians. We are the ones who share a common faith with these suffering brothers and sisters on the other side of the globe. We are the ones with the resources to help them, even if it is just in a small way. Our prayers for their protection and peace cannot be underestimated, but neither can we dismiss the significance of contributing in any way possible to those organizations that are working on the front lines to assist the suffering Church throughout the world. May we all do what we can to bring relief to those who need it most.

Special Thank you

A very heartfelt thank you to the Knights of Columbus and two anonymous parishioners for their generous donation of new Chalice and Ciborium.

RCIA sessions have been meeting for six weeks and going well. We've talked about proofs for God, Jesus, and the roles of Scripture and Tradition, including why Protestant Bibles are missing 7 books from the Old Testament.

Interested in learning more about your faith? We meet on Tuesdays at 7 p.m., in Room 5, and all are welcome to show up for subjects that interest them. Upcoming topics include:

11/15 - Rite of Acceptance rehearsal and prayer - meet in the Church

11/22 - Journey of Faith (Trinity)

11/29 - Creation, the Fall, Angels and the Devil

Thank You to all the parishioners and the whole community for their generous support of our Fall Festival.
Our total amount is $10,323.00!

Offertory Increase

Dear Parishioners,

Jesus reminds us that we need to be like little children to enter the Kingdom of God. As we continue to grow in our faith we encourage to think how we can further this Kingdom. Our commitment of time and money means a lot to this end.

Saint Paul says 2Cor9:6-9 "but remember, anyone who sows sparsely will reap sparsely as well— and anyone who sows generously will reap generously as well. Each one should give as much as he has decided on his/her own initiative, not reluctantly or under compulsion for God loves a cheerful giver. God is perfectly able to enrich you with every grace, so that you always have enough for every conceivable need, and your resources overflow in all kinds of good work."

Thank you for your generous support of St. Frederic Ministries.
