MASS INTENTIONS ($10.00 stipend)

Q: Do I need to request a Mass intention or can I offer up the Mass I attend for these needs?

A: Any Catholic may offer up the Mass in which he or she attends for any good intention. Certainly, graces will accrue in accordance with the intensity of that person's participation and sincerity.

However, the custom of requesting a priest to offer the Mass for a specific intention, even when one cannot be physically present at the Mass, is a longstanding tradition in the Church. This is because the Church considers the Mass as the greatest possible prayer of intercession insofar as it is the perfect offering of Christ to the Father by making present the paschal mystery of his death and resurrection.

Because of the particular role of the priest as mediator between God and man, acting "in persona Christi" when offering the holy sacrifice of the Mass, it is usually considered that special graces may be obtained when he applies the Mass to a particular intention.

From July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019 the weekly need is $3,977.00. This does not include Religious Education, Youth Ministry personnel, which could account for $16,000 or more, nor does it include the Capital Campaign. However, we are able to keep up financially because of your added contributions to the Fall Festival, Chili Feed and Christmas Bazaar fundraisers. Thank you to all who contribute.

Divine Worship

Dear Parishioners,

Continuing from Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook Chapter 1A Section 1.3 and 1.4 states:

The Sunday Eucharist of the Community

Section 1.3.1: "Great importance should also be attached to a Mass celebrated with any community, but especially with the parish community, inasmuch as it represents the universal Church gathered at a given time and place. This is particularly true in the communal celebration that takes place on Sunday, the Lord's Day, revered by the Church as the day of Christ's resurrection and as the weekly Pasch.¹⁰ (See Chapter 3)"

Care for the Celebration

Section 1.4.1: "Given the surpassing value of the Sacrifice of Holy Mass, the fount and summit of the whole of Christian life,¹¹ its celebration is always prepared attentively. Texts and rites are selected with care, the prayers and readings from the Word of God are properly proclaimed, and where possible there is dignified and appropriate sacred music. All this is ensured in a setting where the church building, sanctuary, sacred vestments and other sacred furnishings are dignified, proper, clean and safeguarded by habitual good practice."

Fr. N. Marandu
