MASS INTENTIONS ($10.00 stipend)

Q: The priest simultaneously said a Mass intention for the intention for which I gave a stipend and an intention for vocations. Is this allowed?

A: This is allowed. He may celebrate a regularly scheduled parish Mass for which a parishioner has provided an intention (and a stipend), but at the same time he may perhaps have in mind the intention of his elderly mother. In fact, he may have as many intentions as he likes while offering a Mass, so long as he has accepted a stipend for no more than one of them. While on the surface this may seem illogical, keep in mind that the spiritual value of a single Mass is infinite. The intention for which a stipend was offered is not somehow giving short-shrift if the celebrant offers that same Mass for other intentions as well.

As a rule, a priest may only offer one Mass per day, although there are occasions when he may be permitted to offer more than one Mass in a single day (canon 905.1). (This is why, when St. Frederic has a funeral scheduled, daily Mass is cancelled for the day. Anyone who wants to go to Mass that day is able to attend the funeral.) On Sundays and Holy Days, for example, a priest may celebrate as many as three Masses in one day (and possibly more in areas with a shortage of priests).

Attendance

September 15	5:00 p.m.	93

Divine Worship

Dear Parishioners,

Continuing from Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook (ALH) Chapter 1C and 1D states:

Section 1.15.3: "It is commendable that before the celebration itself, silence should be observed in the church, in the sacristy, in the vesting room, and in adjacent areas, so that all may dispose themselves to carry out the sacred action in a devout and fitting manner.<sup>50</sup> This is all the more indicated by the habitual presence in our churches of the Blessed Sacrament."

Section 1.15.4: "It is furthermore commendable that after the celebration, silence should also be observed in the church, so as to allow those who wish to make a prayerful Act of Thanksgiving."

D. Ministries and Offices of Lay Faithful

Proper Understanding of Certain Roles of Faithful Laypeople

Section 1.16.1: "There is a danger in 'too-indiscriminate use of the word ministry', and the risk it brings of confusion about the right relation between the common priesthood of all Christ's faithful and the ministerial priesthood.<sup>51</sup> In the pastoral context this calls for prudent and responsible use of language. At the same time, this is not to call into doubt the positive prescriptions of the Church regarding the participation of lay Catholics in the mission of Christ and his Church or the selfless dedication of countless faithful throughout the worldwide Church, in the United States of America and in the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon."

*“The whole law found its fulfillment in this one saying “You shall love your neighbor as yourself”
— Galatians 5:14*

“Love everyone, the rich and the poor alike, but I am obliged in the name of Christ to remind all the rich that they must help, respect, and promote the poor.” — Pope Francis

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In our times we are invited as people of faith to be prophets and to be involved in helping those in need especially the poor.
