MASS INTENTIONS ($10.00 stipend)

Q: Can Mass Intentions be said for someone still alive?

A: The great Doctor of the Church, St. Anselm, declares that a single Mass offered for oneself during life may be worth more than a thousand celebrated for the same intention after your death. The merit of the Masses we have offered for ourselves during life will obtain for us a higher degree of glory in Heaven, since we have made the meritorious sacrifice of offering the stipend for the Mass. After death, this is impossible.

Masses offered during our life will go before us, to either cancel our debt – whole or in part, of the punishment due for our sins; thus, it may greatly shorten our Purgatory.

Masses offered for us during our life can help us obtain the great grace of a happy and holy death. The most beautiful gift one can give to another person is a Spiritual Bouquet of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. No material gift can ever compare to or equal the Infinite Value of the Holy Mass.

Holy Sacrifice offered for hardened sinners and those who are dying are especially effective.

Masses may be offered in reparation for the outrages, offenses and blasphemies against Christ in the Holy Eucharist, and insults to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Masses may be offered in thanksgiving for our blessings, family, health and answer to prayers is very pleasing to the Most Blessed Trinity.

Masses for our departed loved ones and all the Holy Souls in Purgatory is a great act of charity, efficacious and meritorious.

Divine Worship

Dear Parishioners,

Continuing from Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook (ALH) Chapter 1C and 1D states:

Section 1.17.3: “In the dioceses of the United States of America, acolytes may wear the alb and cincture or other suitable vesture or other appropriate and dignified clothing.”

Section 1.17.4: “The instituted acolyte may be called upon to instruct others who assist and serve in liturgical celebrations. He thus becomes the first of the non-ordained ministers of the altar.”<sup>57</sup>

Section 1.17.5: “If no deacon is present, after the Prayer of the Faithful is concluded and while the priest remains at the chair, the instituted acolyte places the corporal, the purificator, the chalice, the pall, and the Missal on the altar. Then, if necessary, the acolyte assists the priest in receiving the gifts of the people and, if appropriate, brings the bread and wine to the altar and hands them to the priest. If incense is used, the acolyte presents the thurible to the priest and assists him while he incenses the gifts, the cross, and the altar. Then the acolyte incenses the priest and the people.”<sup>58</sup>

Section 1.17.6: “A duly instituted acolyte, as an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, may, if necessary, assist the priest in giving Holy Communion to the people.”<sup>59</sup>
