MASS INTENTIONS ($10.00 stipend)

Q: Can Mass Intentions be said for someone still alive?

A: The great Doctor of the Church, St. Anselm, declares that a single Mass offered for oneself during life may be worth more than a thousand celebrated for the same intention after your death. The merit of the Masses we have offered for ourselves during life will obtain for us a higher degree of glory in Heaven, since we have made the meritorious sacrifice of offering the stipend for the Mass. After death, this is impossible.

Masses offered during our life will go before us, to either cancel our debt – whole or in part, of the punishment due for our sins; thus, it may greatly shorten our Purgatory.

Masses offered for us during our life can help us obtain the great grace of a happy and holy death. The most beautiful gift one can give to another person is a Spiritual Bouquet of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. No material gift can ever compare to or equal the Infinite Value of the Holy Mass.

Holy Sacrifice offered for hardened sinners and those who are dying are especially effective.

Masses may be offered in reparation for the outrages, offenses and blasphemies against Christ in the Holy Eucharist, and insults to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Masses may be offered in thanksgiving for our blessings, family, health and answer to prayers is very pleasing to the Most Blessed Trinity.

Masses for our departed loved ones and all the Holy Souls in Purgatory is a great act of charity, efficacious and meritorious.

BEQUESTS

I give, devise, and bequeath the sum of $_____ to the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon for the sole benefit of St. Frederic Catholic Church located at 175th S. 13th, St. Helens, Oregon to be used under the direction of the priest at the time of my death.

Divine Worship

Dear Parishioners,

Continuing from Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook (ALH) Chapter 1C and 1D states:

Section 1.17.7: “If Holy Communion is given under both species, when no deacon is present, the instituted acolyte administers the chalice to the communicants or holds the chalice if Communion is given by intinction.”<sup>60</sup>

Section 1.17.8: “Likewise, when the distribution of Holy Communion is completed, the acolyte helps the priest or deacon to purify and arrange the sacred vessels. When no deacon is present, a duly instituted acolyte carries the sacred vessels to the credence table and there purifies, wipes, and arranges them in the usual way.”<sup>61</sup>

Altar Servers

Section 1.18.1: “In the absence of instituted acolytes, lay ministers may be deputed to serve at the altar and assist the priest and the deacon.”<sup>62</sup> These ministers are commonly called ‘altar servers.’”

Section 1.18.2: “In confirming the disposition of the Pontifical Council for the Interpretation of Legislative Texts that service at the altar may be carried out equally by men and women, the Congregation for Divine Worship stated: ‘The Holy See wishes to recall that it will always be very appropriate to follow the noble tradition of having boys serve at the altar. As is well known, this has led to a reassuring development of priestly vocations. Thus the obligation to support such groups of altar boys will always continue.’”<sup>63</sup>
