MASS INTENTIONS ($10.00 stipend)

Q: Can Mass Intentions be said for someone still alive?

A: The great Doctor of the Church, St. Anselm, declares that a single Mass offered for oneself during life may be worth more than a thousand celebrated for the same intention after your death. The merit of the Masses we have offered for ourselves during life will obtain for us a higher degree of glory in Heaven, since we have made the meritorious sacrifice of offering the stipend for the Mass. After death, this is impossible.

Masses offered during our life will go before us, to either cancel our debt – whole or in part, of the punishment due for our sins; thus, it may greatly shorten our Purgatory.

Masses offered for us during our life can help us obtain the great grace of a happy and holy death. The most beautiful gift one can give to another person is a Spiritual Bouquet of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. No material gift can ever compare to or equal the Infinite Value of the Holy Mass.

Holy Sacrifice offered for hardened sinners and those who are dying are especially effective.

Masses may be offered in reparation for the outrages, offenses and blasphemies against Christ in the Holy Eucharist, and insults to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Masses may be offered in thanksgiving for our blessings, family, health and answer to prayers is very pleasing to the Most Blessed Trinity.

Masses for our departed loved ones and all the Holy Souls in Purgatory is a great act of charity, efficacious and meritorious.

BEQUESTS

I give, devise, and bequeath the sum of $_____ to the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon for the sole benefit of St. Frederic Catholic Church located at 175th S. 13th, St. Helens, Oregon to be used under the direction of the priest at the time of my death.

Divine Worship

Dear Parishioners,

Continuing from Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook (ALH) Chapter 1D states:

Section 1.18.3: "Altar servers should receive proper formation before they begin their service. Their formation should include instruction in the Mass and its parts and their meaning, the names and uses of various sacred objects used in the liturgy, and the various functions of the server during the Mass and other liturgical celebrations. Servers should also receive guidance on proper decorum and attire when serving Mass and other functions.⁶⁴ It is advisable for a prudent and experienced person to be designated as coordinator for the altar servers in the parish and for them to be guided by a master of ceremonies at least in more elaborate or less familiar liturgical celebrations."

Section 1.18.4: "The Order for Blessing Altar Servers, Sacristans, Musicians, and Ushers may be used when altar servers first begin their service.⁶⁵ However, any ceremony associated with the deputation of altar servers should be simple and sober and must not have any resemblance to the rites of sacred ordination, nor may such ceremony have a form analogous to what is prescribed by the liturgical books for conferral of the ministries of lector or acolyte."⁶⁶

Section 1.18.5: "When minors have been deputed as altar servers, they should be mature enough to understand their responsibilities and to carry them out well and with appropriate reverence. They should have already received their First Holy Communion and should normally receive the Holy Eucharist whenever they participate in the liturgy.⁶⁷ The policies of the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon on safeguarding children should be fully implemented."
