Divine Worship

Dear Parishioners,

Continuing from Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook (ALH) Chapter 1D states:

Section 1.21.8: “Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion may be designated for a fixed-period mandate or ad actum (one time):

- When extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion are to be deputed for a time, this deputation is made in writing by the Archbishop upon the recommendation of the pastor or religious superior through the Office of Divine Worship. These appointments are made for a specific parish or institution, and cannot be exercised elsewhere. The term of office is three years, effective from the time of commissioning. The term is renewable, but application must again be made to the Archbishop.
- Designation ad actum is done by the priest celebrant in the course of the Mass, using the rite found in the Missal.⁸⁴ This should be done only in cases of real need and not become a habitual or frequent practice.

Section 1.21.9: The Order for the Commissioning of Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion is to be used when these ministers first begin their ministry.⁸⁵ However, any ceremony associated with the commissioning or deputation of extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion should be simple, sober, and must not have any resemblance to the rites of sacred ordination, nor may such ceremony have a form analogous to what is prescribed by the liturgical books for the conferral of the ministries of lector or acolyte.”⁸⁶

Section 1.21.10: Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion should receive sufficient spiritual, theological, and practical preparation to fulfill their role with knowledge and reverence.⁸⁷

⁸⁴ Roman Missal, Appendix III, Rite of Deputing a Minister to distribute Holy Communion on a Single Occasion; cf. Codex Iuris Canonici (Code of Canon Law), can. 910 §2. The “temporary designation” of can. 230 §2, has the sense of appointment ad actum, and should be distinguished from the more stable deputation envisioned in can. 230 §3, which is here called deputation “for a time”.

"How shall I make a return to the Lord for all the good he has done for me." — Psalm 16:12

Dear Parishioners,

We should realize that everything we have is a gift from God. It is our responsibility to be generous with the gifts God has given us. Stewardship is to help each other to improve our relationship with God. May God keep you in his care during this Advent Time as you share your gifts with each other.

Do you remember the sisters, brothers, or religious order priests who made a positive difference in your life? Today many are elderly and need assistance.
