From July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019 the weekly need is $3,977.00. This does not include Religious Education, Youth Ministry personnel, which could account for $16,000 or more, nor does it include the Capital Campaign. However, we are able to keep up financially because of your added contributions to the Fall Festival, Chili Feed and Christmas Bazaar fundraisers. Thank you to all who contribute.

Capital Campaign: The full "up-to-$10,000" anonymous offer of matching gift is coming closer to reality. Since the announcement of the matching commitment, we have received $6,950 in new gifts which qualify for the match. That means our Capital Campaign is $13,900 closer to our goal. This also means we still have a $3,050 matching opportunity ...all new donations up to that amount received by year-end qualify for the match! We still have some time but not a lot. Thank you to all who are supporting this important effort.

BEQUESTS

I give, devise, and bequeath the sum of $_____ to the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon for the sole benefit of St. Frederic Catholic Church located at 175th S. 13th, St. Helens, Oregon to be used under the direction of the priest at the time of my death.

Divine Worship

Dear Parishioners,

Continuing from Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook (ALH) Chapter 1D states:

Section 1.21.11: "To serve as extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion in the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon, persons must:

- Be practicing Catholics, distinguished in their Christian life, faith and morals.
- Be at least 16 years old.
- Have received the sacraments of Baptism, confirmation, and Eucharist.
- Demonstrate a deep reverence for and devotion to the Eucharist.
- Possess the requisite abilities and temperament to carry out their assigned duties.

Section 1.21.12: Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion should always be dressed in a manner consistent with the dignity of their role during the liturgical celebration. A neat appearance and reverential deportment are essential.

Section 1.21.13: While the liturgical vesture common to ministers of any rank is the alb and cincture, in the case of extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, to distinguish their role from the ordinary lay ministries, in the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon it is preferred that they not wear distinctive vesture such as albs.

Section 1.21.14: Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion should not process in the entrance procession. They should normally sit in the congregation with their families and the other faithful until the time when they approach the altar to assist in the distribution of Holy Communion, and then return to their earlier places at the end of the Communion Rite.

Section 1.21.15: Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion may not assist at the Preparation of the Gifts (including distributing unconsecrated hosts among ciboria or pouring wine into chalices), in the fractio panis, or in the purification of sacred vessels.<sup>88</sup>

Section 1.21.15: It is forbidden for Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion to open the tabernacle or bring the sacred hosts to or from the tabernacle during the Sacred Liturgy, unless the priest is in some way physically impeded."

"How shall I make a return to the Lord for all the good he has done for me." — Psalm 16:12

Dear Parishioners,

We should realize that everything we have is a gift from God. It is our responsibility to be generous with the gifts God has given us. Stewardship is to help each other to improve our relationship with God. May God keep you in his care during this Advent Time as you share your gifts with each other.
