Attendance

December 29	5:00 p.m.	62
December 30	8:00 a.m.	60
	10:00 a.m.	78
January 1	10:00 a.m.	66

From July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019 the weekly need is $3,977.00. This does not include Religious Education, Youth Ministry personnel, which could account for $16,000 or more, nor does it include the Capital Campaign. However, we are able to keep up financially because of your added contributions to the Fall Festival, Chili Feed and Christmas Bazaar fundraisers. Thank you to all who contribute.

Weekly Need:	$ 3,977.00
Collection: December 29/30	$ 1,583.00
	$-2,394.00

Regardless of our situation financially, every family should try to make a sacrifice no matter how small the gift. When we read Mark 12:41-44 where the poor widow gave a few pennies in the collection basket, Jesus said to his disciples, "She gave from her heart all that she had to live on."

As we start our new year 2019, we are all called to look carefully about our weekly offertory support. We need to evaluate how we did last year and prayerfully think how we can improve our offertory. A lot of parishes depend on Christmas to catch up with their donations, but in our church parish, Christmas did not reflect that.

As we wish each other a Happy New Year 2019, let us thank God for all the gifts he gave us. May God bless each one of us. Happy New Year.

Father Nicoaus Marandu

Divine Worship

Dear Parishioners,

Continuing from Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook (ALH) Chapter 1D states:

Musicians, Singers, and Choir Members

Section 1.22.1: "All pastoral musicians - professional or volunteer, full-time or part-time, director or choir member, cantor or instrumentalist - exercise a genuine liturgical ministry. The community of the faithful has a right to expect that this service will be provided competently. Pastoral musicians should receive appropriate formation that is based on their baptismal call to discipleship; that grounds them in a love for and knowledge of Scripture, Catholic teaching, liturgy, and music; and that equips them with the musical, liturgical, and pastoral skills to serve the Church at prayer.<sup>91</sup> Section 1.21.12: Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion should always be dressed in a manner consistent with the dignity of their role during the liturgical celebration. A neat appearance and reverential deportment are essential.<sup>91</sup>

Section 1.22.2 Liturgical musicians are first of all disciples, and only then are they ministers. Joined to Christ through the sacraments of initiation, musicians belong to the assembly of the baptized faithful; they are worshipers above all else. Like other baptized members of the assembly, pastoral musicians need to hear the Gospel, experience conversion, profess faith in Christ, and so proclaim the praise of God. Thus, musicians who serve the Church at prayer are not merely employees or volunteers. They are ministers who share the faith, serve the community, and express the love of God and neighbor through music.<sup>92</sup>

Section 1.22.3: Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion should not process Choir members, like all liturgical ministers, should exercise their ministry with evident faith and should participate in the entire liturgical celebration, recognizing that they are servants of the liturgy and members of the gathered assembly.<sup>93</sup>

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Classes are Thursday, at 7 p.m. in the office. You are welcome to come to any class that interests you.

Topics will be listed in the bulletin each week.

January 10—Why pray to the Saints? Isn't that worshipping someone besides God?

January 17—Instead of attending a church with so many hypocrites and problems, wouldn't it be better to worship God at home, in my own way?

January 24—If the first commandment forbids us from making images of things in heaven, why do we make statues of Jesus?

January 31—Where in the Bible is purgatory mentioned?

FORMED.org

In this week's FORMED Pick of the Week, Fr. Shannon Collins sheds new light on the biblical narratives of the birth of Jesus Christ, as well as the beautiful traditions of the Church during Christmas.

Garage Sale

The next garage sale is scheduled for Friday, March 15 and Saturday, March 16. Start gathering your items to donate. You can bring items to the office during normal hours.
