From July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019 the weekly need is $3,977.00. This does not include Religious Education, Youth Ministry personnel, which could account for $16,000 or more, nor does it include the Capital Campaign. However, we are able to keep up financially because of your added contributions to the Fall Festival, Chili Feed and Christmas Bazaar fundraisers. Thank you to all who contribute.

Weekly Need:	$ 3,977.00
Collection: January 5/6	$ 2,814.00
	$-1,163.00

Regardless of our situation financially, every family should try to make a sacrifice no matter how small the gift. When we read Mark 12:41-44 where the poor widow gave a few pennies in the collection basket, Jesus said to his disciples, "She gave from her heart all that she had to live on."

As we start our new year 2019, we are all called to look carefully about our weekly offertory support. We need to evaluate how we did last year and prayerfully think how we can improve our offertory. A lot of parishes depend on Christmas to catch up with their donations, but in our church parish, Christmas did not reflect that.

As we wish each other a Happy New Year 2019, let us thank God for all the gifts he gave us. May God bless each one of us. Happy New Year.

Father Nicolaus Marandu

Divine Worship

Dear Parishioners,

Continuing from Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook (ALH) Chapter 1D states:

Section 1.22.4: "Preparation for the celebration of the Sacred Liturgy, and particularly for the selection of what is to be sung at the Liturgy is ultimately the responsibility of the pastor and of the priest who will celebrate the Mass. At the same time, "in planning the celebration of Mass, [the priest] should have in mind the common spiritual good of the people of God, rather than his own inclinations." ⁹⁴

Section 1.22.5 In the dioceses of the United States of America, musicians, singers, and choir members may wear the alb and cincture, other suitable vesture, or other appropriate and dignified clothing. ⁹⁵

Section 1.22.6: The Order for Blessing Altar Servers, Sacristans, Musicians, and Ushers may be used when musicians, singers and choir members first begin their ministry. ⁹⁶

Sacristans and Ushers

Section 1.23.1: The sacristan carefully arranges the liturgical books, the vestments, and other things necessary in the celebration of Mass. ⁹⁷ It is appropriate for those who care for sacred vessels, linens and other things used in the liturgy to accompany their work with prayer. ⁹⁸

Section 1.23.2: The Order for Blessing Altar Servers, Sacristans, Musicians, and Ushers may be used when musicians, singers and choir members first begin their ministry. ⁹⁹

⁹⁵ General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 339. USCCB, Sing to the Lord: Music in Divine Worship, 2007, 33. "Choir and ensemble members may dress in albs or choir robes, but always in clean, presentable, and modest clothing. Cassock and surplice, being clerical attire, are not recommended as choir vesture." However, just as alter servers have substituted for ordained acolytes and by custom of many centuries have worn the cassock and surplice, so choir members have substituted for clerics "in choir" (i.e., in the sanctuary), and by custom have also worn attire that closely resembles the cassock and surplice.

⁹⁶ Roman Ritual, Book of Blessings, 62, That this blessing applies as well to singers and choir members can be seen from what is said in the texts of the prayers within the order of blessing.

Room 5 Needs a New Name

As we approach final completion of the Classroom 5 remodel, Fr. Marandu would like us to give the room a new name, a name more in keeping with its broader purpose. The room will continue to be used in a variety of ways including as a classroom and for receptions, but is now also a highly useful conference environment. Fr. Marandu suggests that the room be named after a Saint.

Everyone is encouraged to help rename Classroom 5 after a Saint. Next weekend January 19/20 each parishioner will have an opportunity to fill out a nomination form. The form will ask for the name of the Saint and why that Saint would be a good choice for a name on our conference room door. A decision will be made during the week following based on parishioner input. Thank you for your involvement.
