THE RICHNESS OF LIFE IN CHRIST

Today we have the beautiful story of the woman promised a child, the wonderful exhortation about life in Christ, and a powerful instruction from Jesus. An embarrassment of riches? Not if we take Jesus' words about "welcome" to heart. The many challenges and blessings offered to us today by Elisha, Paul, and Jesus should be cause for rejoicing, and welcomed heartily into our lives. And, like the great treat that they are, they should be enjoyed and shared generously with others.

Today's reading from Romans was chosen very early in the liturgical life of the Church to be the sole apostolic instruction received by candidates for baptism at the Easter Vigil. This illustrates its importance as a core belief, and as a means of comprehending the story of the Resurrection. Christ's resurrection is not merely a story about something that he underwent once upon a time, but it is our story, the story of how we joined the other members of the one Body of Christ, the church. We were not only dead, but we were buried; not ultimately buried, but raised to eternal life with Christ.

DYING AND RISING

The words of Saint Paul hit us smack in the face: "Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?" (Romans 6:3). This epistle is one of the choices to be read at Catholic funerals. It generally comes as something of a shock to the listeners. But the reading goes on to offer great comfort to us as Christians. "[w]e have died with Christ . . . we shall also live with him . . . raised from the dead, [Christ] dies no more . . . [Christ] lives for God . . . you too must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus."

VIDA EN CRISTO

Hoy tenemos la preciosa historia de la mujer a quien se le promete un hijo, una maravillosa exhortación a la vida en Cristo y una poderosa enseñanza de Jesús. ¿Demasiadas riquezas en una sola dosis? No, si tomamos las palabras de Jesús sobre "ser acogedores" de corazón. Los muchos retos y bendiciones que hoy nos ofrecen Eliseo, Pablo, y Jesús deben ser causa de regocijo, y debemos acogerlos de corazón en nuestras vidas. Y, como el gran regalo que son, deben ser disfrutados y compartidos generosamente con los demás.

La lectura de hoy tomada de la carta a los romanos fue seleccionada en los comienzos de la vida litúrgica de la Iglesia como instrucción apostólica que debían recibir los candidatos al bautismo durante la Vigilia de Pascua. Esto da una idea de su importancia como creencia central, y como medio para entender la historia de la resurrección. La resurrección de Cristo no es solamente la historia de algo por lo que él pasó una vez hace tiempo, sino que es nuestra historia, la historia de cómo nos unimos a los otros miembros del Cuerpo de Cristo, la Iglesia. No sólo estábamos muertos, sino enterrados; pero no enterrados para siempre, sino resucitados a la vida eterna en Cristo.

Esa tarde tendremos el gran placer de ser entretenidos por varios artistas como Joan Sebastián y Las Jilguerillas, entre otros. No se puede perder del gran show. Los esperamos!

The Hispanic Community of Saint Patrick invites us all to the next kermes at Gurnell Hall on July 9th, immediately after the 12:30 p.m. Spanish Mass. A kermes is similar to carnival where our parish community gathers to delight our palates with great food and enjoy each other's company. Delicious food will be available at a very reasonable price. At this kermes, several Hispanic artists will provide us with a spectacular show. Please, don't miss out on this great event!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Sponsorship Opportunities and Appreciation

At the start of our Columbian year, July 2016, Council 6322 initiated a sponsorship opportunity for local businesses. We were excited about working with individuals that had the same desire of charity and love for their own communities.

Together we were able to help many charities that reflected the values we cherish as Knights. Our sponsors are proud to stand with us as an organization that symbolizes an individual's commitment to our Christian faith, our profound love for our country to and our steadfast dedication to serving of our parish and communities.

On July 15th, in appreciation of our generous sponsors, the Knights of Columbus are hosting an evening of dinner and entertainment. Be prepared to laugh at the antics of Stephen Boehringer, a stand-up Christian comedian. Doors will open at 5 p.m., dinner will be served at 6 p.m. and the show starts at 7:30 p.m. Ticket donations are $20 for adults and $10 for children under 12. Our sponsors will be attending and will be offered preferred seating at the dinner of appreciation.

Please plan on attending. It is very important for the men of Council 6322 to support this very important event. We would like to show our sponsors the appreciation they deserve for having donated and supported us during the year. Also, the Knight of the Year will be announced at the dinner...See you all there!

Please look for Knights after each Mass for your tickets, thank you.

Respectfully Yours, Geno Davidson.... Grand Knight

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It's Independence Day week, and there is a link worth tracing between the Declaration of Independence and the language of liturgy. One of the signers of the Declaration on that July 4 long ago was Charles Carroll, probably the wealthiest man in the colonies and one of the few Catholics on the political scene. As a flourish to his signature, he sought to distinguish himself from other prominent citizens bearing the same name by penning "Charles Carroll of Carrolltown"—a defiant "come and get me if you dare" postscript aimed at the British.

Carroll's brother John was a priest and patriot who in 1789 was given the task of organizing the Catholic Church in this country. By 1791, he had assembled a synod, or assembly of delegates, to launch that task formally. Archbishop Carroll wanted to gain acceptance of our faith by American people who mistrusted our customs and could not comprehend our liturgy. He made the amazing proposal to Rome that our liturgy should be prayed not in Latin, but in the vernacular, English. His wish was denied, but one hundred sixty years later, his deep desire helped the American bishops and scholars at the Second Vatican Council to win the vote in favor of the vernacular not just for the United States, but for the Church throughout the world. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
