"The masters of the spiritual life give this great principle for distinguishing the true inspirations of God from, those which come from the devil, namely, that the former are always gentle and peaceful and lead us to confidence and humility while the latter are agitating, unquiet and turbulent, leading to discouragement and suspicion, or even to presumption and following of our own will. We must, therefore, firmly reject all that does not bear this mark of peace, submission, gentleness and confidence, the impressions as it were of God's seal; this point is of great importance for the whole of our life."--Jean P.de Caussade
