REFLECTION

Go

Is there any other word in Scripture so small but so powerful?

It’s the first word Jesus speaks at the end of Mark’s Gospel in his final exhortation to his little flock. “Go.”

Jesus often speaks in blunt, direct orders, commanding his followers to pray, to offer, to give, to forgive, to love. But this simple command, his last one, puts all the others into context.

It tells the world that to be one of his followers means never standing still. It is to be a person of action, on a journey.

It means we are not to keep the Gospel message to ourselves, but to go – to take it beyond our comfort zone, to every corner of the world, “to every creature,” where all will hear it and experience it and be transformed by it.

This directive reminds us that “Christianity is not static. It is not just words on a page, or a coin in a basket, or an hour on a Sunday morning. No. Christianity is dynamic. It moves.

And it is still moving – from a hilltop in galilee to jungles in India to storefronts in America and vast cathedrals in Europe. It has moved through sick children in Malawi and refugees in Erbil, and by some miracle, it continues to move, to spread, to go. After 2,000 years, it can’t be stopped.

What are we to make of this? How do we do our part? It’s very simple, really.

Take that first step. Look for a need, a hunger, a heart aching for hope.

And go.

LITURGY

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 9:26-31

Paul the Apostle came to Jerusalem, where the other disciples were afraid of him. Then they learned that the Lord had spoken to Paul and he had preached openly in Damascus. When they learned that someone wanted to kill him, they protected him because they fully believed he had converted.

Second Reading: I John 3:18-24

John clearly states that we must love one another. All people who believe in Jesus Christ can show their faith only through their actions. If people believe in Jesus and love one another as he commanded us, they prove that they are true believers in Christ.

Gospel: John 15:1-8

Jesus compares himself to a vine, and compares his father to the vine-grower. He explains how God prunes the barren branches so that the rest might yield more fruit. He reminds them that apart from himself, his followers could not bear fruit.

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS
SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

The Women's Cornerstone VI

The team would like to thank everyone who helped make last weekend's Retreat a success:

- Father David, for his leadership in bringing Cornerstone to our parish and his constant support and guidance.
- The candidates themselves. They were an extremely enthusiastic and energetic group. This bodes very well for next year's Women's Cornerstone.
- The countless volunteers that helped setup and breakdown, worked in the kitchen, assisted as table leaders.
- The Cornerstone Support Committee for their encouragement.
- The Parish staff for their assistance.
- Sparta Stop and Shop and Water Resource Technologies, Inc. for their generous donations.
- Castle Printing for their help and generosity.

Thank you. There would be no retreat without all your help and support.

We cannot thank each of you individually by name, but you know who you are. The Lord called you each by name.

LETTER FROM BISHOP SERRATELLI

DIOCESE OF PATERSON

777 Valley Road
Clifton, New Jersey 07013

Dear Father McDonnell,

As a diocese, we are taking up a special I was recently given a report on the results of the 2017 Bishop's Annual Appeal, and I am overjoyed to see that more than $4.6 million has been pledged. This is a record for our Diocese and means that we are able to provide ongoing critical support to vital ministries, especially to those that serve our brothers and sisters in profound need.

These numbers also reflect the stewardship of so many people in your parish. The generous response to our 2017 Bishop's Annual Appeal by the parishioners of Our Lady of the Lake Parish is a true blessing and changes lives. Many come to our Church in need of critical services and leave with much more. They take with them the love and compassion of the parishioners of the Paterson Diocese. I thank all those who made this possible by participating in the 2017 Appeal and I thank you for your pastoral leadership and support.

Please share this letter of gratitude with your parishioners by including it in your bulletin. I want them to know how much I appreciate their participation in our Annual Appeal.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

+Arthur J. Serratelli
