REFLECTION

We will never know how many lives have been transformed by the action of the Holy Spirit, but remarkable things have happened in the lives of many people down through the ages, starting with the disciples at Pentecost.

Mother Theresa - St. Theresa of Calcutta - had another experience. She thought that she could do God's will as a teaching sister of Loreto until she experienced the poor people dying on the streets of the city outside the safe confines of the convent walls. Again, God had other ideas for her as she left the security of her religious house to found the Missionaries of the Charity, devoted to the care of the poorest of the poor.

The disciples, too, were on a steep learning curve. Their expectations as followers of Jesus kept changing. Through the early days of basking in the glory of Jesus, the popular preacher and miracle worker, through the despair of the passion and death of their Lord, they found themselves driven by the power of the Holy Spirit to proclaim the Good News to the whole creation

In these weeks after Easter, we relive with the disciples their growing awareness of how the risen Lord continued to be with them; how he shared his Holy Spirit with them to help them to understand all that Jesus had taught them. We discover with them that Jesus calls us in our turn to be his friends and to know his love for us. He wants us to continue his mission of bringing his love and peace to the people of our own day.

If the Holy Spirit could transform Peter and the rest into an effective tool for evangelization and continue this work of transformation through the saints of every generation, then we can believe that the same Holy Spirit can transform us and empower us to go out in the joy and hope to bear fruit; the fruit of love that will last forever.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48

Peter preaches to the Gentiles for the first time in the house of Cornelius. Peter realized that God would accept any person who acted uprightly, regardless of his or her heritage. Then the Holy Spirit descended on the Gentiles and Peter allowed them to be baptized in the name of Jesus.

Second Reading: I John 4:7-10

John advises all believers to love one another, for love is a gift from God. The person without love does not know God, whose love for us is so great he sent his only son so that we might have life through him.

Gospel: John 15:9-17

Jesus asks his disciples to live on in his love and to "Love one another as I have loved you." He explains that he chose them to follow him, and promises if they keep his commandments they will have anything that they ask for in his name.

LETTER FROM BISHOP SERRATELLI

DIOCESE OF PATERSON

777 Valley Road
Clifton, New Jersey 07013

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
This month our parishes will take up the Peter's Pence collection. This collection supports our Holy Father as he reaches out with charity to some of the most marginalized throughout the world and reveals the love and compassion of faithful Catholics everywhere. I invite you to participate in this worthy cause.
There are many great things that take place thanks to the Peter's Pence collection. For example, in Iraq many people still live a nightmare of war and violence. As a result, many are displaced, including young people in the midst of their studies. Without an educated population, it will be difficult for the country to gain stability. But through the Peter's Pence collection, the Archdiocese of Erbil, in Iraqi Kurdistan, has received funding for 10 scholarships for young displaced persons. With this help, the students can complete their university education and move forward with the hope of rebuilding their country. This is just one of many examples of how the Peter's Pence collection extends charity to those most in need. Your help would be a great blessing to many. Please prayerfully consider supporting this collection when it is taken up in your parish.
Faithfully yours in Christ,
+Arthur J. Serratelli
Most Reverend Arthur J. Serratelli, S.T.D., S.S.L., DD
Bishop of Paterson
