SCRIPTURES:

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time July 22, 2018

First Reading: In this passage, God denounces false leaders who have scattered His people. He promises that they will be reunited and led by one who is just and wise.

(Jeremiah 23:1-6)

Second Reading: Paul explains that through Jesus Christ, there is no longer hostility between Gentile and Jew. Instead, through the Spirit of Christ, both groups become one body and are equal in the eyes of God. (Ephesians 2: 13-18)

GOSPEL: The apostles returned after their first mission and told Jesus what they had done and taught. He told them to rest, but the people kept coming to see them. So they went to find a private place, but the people learned where they were going and arrived first. Jesus felt sorry for the crowd and decided to teach them. (Mark 6: 30-34)

Stewardship by the Book July 15, 2018

Today's readings are about being chosen and sent. Amos was chosen by the Lord and sent to use his talents for the people of God. The Gospel recounts the story of the sending of the twelve disciples; and in the 2nd Reading, St. Paul reminds us that we, too, are chosen. For what have I been chosen? To whom have I been sent?

Stewardship by the Book July 22, 2018

In today's Gospel, Jesus had planned to slip away from the crowds for a few moments of peace and a little rest with the apostles. When He saw the people gathered, however, He put His needs aside to meet the needs of others. Sometimes, as good stewards, we are called upon to do the same.

reason you are unable to wear slacks, a skirt or summer dress & MUST wear shorts, they should be bermudas or capris, and tops should be modest, no tube tops; Gentlemen- shirts should have collars, (golf shirts) NOT T-shirts. EVERYONE: please no cut-offs, short shorts or flip flops. This is the House of the Lord, let us show Him the respect He deserves! Thank you.

RCIA The next RCIA process for 2018-2019 will begin in September. If you know an adult who is not confirmed or who is a member of another church & is interested in the Catholic Faith, please let us know by calling Fr. Chris at 973-663-0211.

STORIES IN GLASS – part two

Last time in my article I dealt with windows 1,2 and 3, on the parking lot side of the church. This week I will try to describe the other five windows.

Window number 4 – nearest the front door on the parking lot side – continues the theme of the center panel devoted to scenes of Mary's life. In this center panel is Our Lady of La Salette, with, on the altar side, the Little Flower, St. Terese of Lisieux, and St. Francis of Assisi, with the birds on the other side.

Now we move to the Legion side of the church and begin by the organ. This window does not have a center panel dedicated to Our lady. Instead, it has the Apparition of the Sacred Heart, and on one side the Coronation of Our Lady, and on the other side, the Descent of the Holy Spirit.

The next window has Our Lady of Fatima as the center panel, flanked by the Resurrection of Jesus and the Agony in the Garden, two scenes from the life of Jesus.

The third window has Our Lady of Knock in the center, flanked by Jesus at the Sermon on the Mount and, in the other panel, Jesus the Good Shepherd.

The fourth window-- nearest the confessional—has the center panel, Our Lady of Lourdes, with St. Pius X healing Sr. Maria Louise on one side, and Mother Seton on the other.

Seven of the scenes are biblical, the Annunciation, Birth of Christ, Descent of the Holy Spirit, Resurrection, Agony in the Garden, Sermon on the Mount, and the Good Shepherd.

There are not many scenes that feature Mary in the New Testament, in the Gospels. She is a central figure in the Infancy Narratives in Matthew and Luke and again she appears at the foot of the cross as Jesus breathed His last.

Our devotion to Mary while based on her role in scripture has developed over the centuries and her appearances at Guadalupe, Lourdes, Knock and other places has attracted people by the millions in the Catholic Church.

Our stained glass windows tell us part of the story that is Mary of Nazareth, the Queen of the Universe, Our Lady Star of the Sea.

Sincerely in Christ,

Father Chris
