Ministry for Black Catholics

The annual Saint Martin dePorres Mass and Luncheon will be held on Sunday, November 3, 2017. All are invited to join this spirit-filled celebration and memorial mass as we remember one of the great saints who cared for the poor.

Introduction to the Liturgy

God has invited us to this banquet today in order to remind us of our invitation to the heavenly banquet. We each received our invitation at our baptism. What have you done with your invitation? Have you set it aside? Lost it? Are you preparing for the banquet? Today would be a good day to rediscover our invitation to the banquet of God’s kingdom, and to assess what we are doing to prepare ourselves.

Fr. Paul

PRAYER AGAINST CRIME AND VIOLENCE

Lord God, crime is on the increase within our city and our country. From the depths of our hearts we pray that you will comfort, heal, and bless all victims of crime. We ask that you protect all people from the evil of crime and violence.

We pray especially for life-changing conversion for all criminals and the violent—

- remove all evil from their hearts
- fill them with your goodness and love
- may they cease their evil works

may our city and land be free from the scourge of crime and violence.

We pray also for the grace to purge ourselves of all violence—

- in our own thoughts and actions
- in our family life
- in our friendships
- in our relationships with others.

Lord, I personally commit to refrain from violent acts or words to settle conflicts.

I further swear to teach others, especially our youth,

- that violence is too quick an answer
- that violence produces irreparable, life-long and threatening results.

Amen.

Our Place of Remembrance

Again this year, during the month of month of November, parishioners are invited to bring framed pictures of their relatives, loved ones and friends who have gone home to God. We will place the pictures on a table in front of the altar. There will be a candle burning to remind us to pray for our dearly departed. This memorial will be displayed until the end of Mass on Sunday, November 26.

Question of the Week

What specific threads of “charity in action” are woven together to fashion the “wedding garment” needed for my presence at Jesus’ feast? Is it time I got back to work at the proverbial loom?

Hurricane Relief

Dominicans at home and abroad are soliciting whatever assistance donors are comfortable providing. A Go Fund Me page has been created and is available at the www.DARDA.org website. DARDA (Dominican American Relief and Development Association) was created 38 years ago after Hurricane David similarly affected Dominica. The group has been identified by the Dominican government as an official collector of relief funds and supplies.

If you would like to offer support for victims in the United States Virgin Island, please send contributions to Catholic Relief, USA designated for U.S. Virgin Islands. www.crs.org

Prayer for Protection

Our Father in Heaven through the intercession of Our Lady from all harm. Protect us and our homes from all disasters of nature. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

TRIP TO THE BATHROOM

Little people sometimes find it necessary to make a bathroom visit during mass to relieve boredom if nothing else. Fellowship hall and the bathrooms are unsupervised and accessible to outsiders. For the safety of our little ones, their grown-up should accompany them when they take a break. Nothing has happened and we want to be sure it doesn't.

Parking Lot

During the weekdays, the parking spaces are not available. In addition, please do not park in the pastors' or volunteer parking slots. These slots are available on Sunday, but never during the weekday. If you have a special request, please call the office. Thank you.

God has invited all of us to his table; He wishes all of us to attend His banquet. How have you responded to this request? Have you embraced this invitation, and prepared yourself for attendance? Every week we are prepared a place at His table and provided an opportunity to partake in His feast through the Eucharist. What a beautiful gift this is, one we should strive to participate in as often as possible. It is also important to remember that not only do we need to show up; we need to be prepared. The Lord is waiting to take us as we are, but we should come prepared to receive Him. How do you prepare to receive the Lord? This week consider how you can come to the table more prepared. Attending Confession or reading the gospel and scripture readings before Mass are a couple ways you can prepare yourself.

If you think so, please call or write Father Norm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113 or vocations@cdow.org).
