Introduction to the Liturgy

Interspersed throughout the Church year are Sunday's that remind us that the most important thing is love—love is God, love of neighbor. Today is one of those Sunday's. You know how much you want for yourself in this life. You know the way you want to be treated. That's how much you must love your neighbor, so that they can have those things and be treated that way—especially your neighbor who acts, speaks, or looks different from you. Let our prayer today be for the grace to share God's love equally and unstintingly.

Fr. Paul

Ministry for Black Catholics

The annual Saint Martin dePorres Mass and Luncheon will be held on Sunday, November 5, 2017. All are invited to join this spirit-filled celebration and memorial mass as we remember one of the great saints who cared for the poor.

 Director Religious Education: Mary Polk

Our Place of Remembrance

Again this year, during the month of month of November, parishioners are invited to bring framed pictures of their relatives, loved ones and friends who have gone home to God. We will place the pictures on a table in front of the altar. There will be a candle burning to remind us to pray for our dearly departed. This memorial will be displayed until the end of Mass on Sunday, November 26.

Capital Campaign Nearing the End

The Capital Campaign that many parishioners committed to support three years ago, will come to an end in December 2017. We don't know the final amount of money for St. Joseph's until the campaign is over and we see exactly how much was actually contributed against the pledged amounts.

If you plan to complete your pledge by December 2017, please continue sending your donation to the Diocese as you've done these last three years. However, if you have not been able to honor your pledge and believe that you will contribute after the campaign ends, please make your contribution directly to St. Joseph's.

As we get closer to starting the fellowship hall renovations, I'm extremely grateful to parishioners who have contributed and to parishioners who will contribute toward this parish goal. God bless you!

Fr. Paul

Question of the Week

Because we only love God as much as the neighbor we love the least, whom do I need to look at differently this week if I hope to look more like God?

TRIP TO THE BATHROOM

Little people sometimes find it necessary to make a bathroom visit during mass to relieve boredom if nothing else. Fellowship hall and the bathrooms are unsupervised and accessible to outsiders. For the safety of our little ones, their grown-up should accompany them when they take a break. Nothing has happened and we want to be sure it doesn't.

Parking Lot

During the weekdays, the parking spaces are not available. In addition, please do not park in the pastors' or volunteer parking slots. These slots are available on Sunday, but never during the weekday. If you have a special request, please call the office. Thank you.

THROUGHOUT THE DIOCESE

In the gospel this week we find the Pharisees testing Jesus on the law, in particularly concerning which commandment is the greatest. Jesus' response is both simple and beautiful; the answer is love. We are commanded to love the Lord with all our heart, soul, and mind, and our neighbor as our self. Love should be the center of all we do, both towards God and each other. How are you living out these commandments? What does it mean to love with all your heart, soul and mind? This call to love is all consuming and when it becomes our focus our life becomes guided by it. Is your life guided by this love? What more can you do to show a full encompassing love to both the Lord and your neighbor?

Vocations

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

All Christians are called to love the Lord with all their hearts, souls and minds, and to love their neighbor as themselves. Some are called to express that love in lives of service to God's people as priests, deacons, religious sisters or religious brothers. Are you being called to live out your life in one of these vocations? If you think so, call or write Father Norm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113 or vocations@cdow.org). Be sure to visit our website: www.cdow.org/vocations!

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

Nov. 1 is All Saints Day. You know your beloved's best and worst qualities. Focus on his/her saintliness today and write a paragraph describing the saintly qualities of your spouse. (sacrifices, generosity...)

PARENTING POINTERS

With Halloween approaching, we are immersed in "fake scariness." But sometimes children have real fears. Talking about ways that you overcame your own childhood fears can give your child hope. Movies/TV can often exaggerate danger and trigger fears.
