Our Place of Remembrance

Again this year, during the month of month of November, parishioners are invited to bring framed pictures of their relatives, loved ones and friends who have gone home to God. We will place the pictures on a table in front of the altar. There will be a candle burning to remind us to pray for our dearly departed. This memorial will be displayed until the end of Mass on Sunday, November 26.

Introduction to the Liturgy

In our political and commercial world, it appears that humility is not a virtue. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us otherwise. As we gather for worship today at our loving God's invitation, it might be good to step back from advertisements and exhortations that encourage us to exalt ourselves, and instead pray for the humility of Christ in all our daily interactions.

Fr. Paul

Ministry for Black Catholics

The annual Saint Martin dePorres Mass and Luncheon will be held on Sunday, November 5, 2017. All are invited to join this spirit-filled celebration and memorial mass as we remember one of the great saints who cared for the poor.

Junior Sodality

Parents and guardians of young ladies, 6 - 14, who would like more information about the activities and mission of the Junior Sodality, please contact Margaret Levesque, 302-656 0813; Jean Toy, 302-658 2218, or Lorenza Hinds, 302-547 0074.

Capital Campaign Nearing the End

The Capital Campaign that many parishioners committed to support three years ago, will come to an end in December 2017. We don't know the final amount of money for St. Joseph's until the campaign is over and we see exactly how much was actually contributed against the pledged amounts.

If you plan to complete your pledge by December 2017, please continue sending your donation to the Diocese as you've done these last three years. However, if you have not been able to honor your pledge and believe that you will contribute after the campaign ends, please make your contribution directly to St. Joseph's.

As we get closer to starting the fellowship hall renovations, I'm extremely grateful to parishioners who have contributed and to parishioners who will contribute toward this parish goal. God bless you!

Fr. Paul

TRIP TO THE BATHROOM

Little people sometimes find it necessary to make a bathroom visit during mass to relieve boredom if nothing else. Fellowship hall and the bathrooms are unsupervised and accessible to outsiders. For the safety of our little ones, their grown-up should accompany them when they take a break. Nothing has happened and we want to be sure it doesn't.

Parking Lot

During the weekdays, the parking spaces are not available. In addition, please do not park in the pastors' or volunteer parking slots. These slots are available on Sunday, but never during the weekday. If you have a special request, please call the office. Thank you.

This week's gospel message is reminiscent of the saying, "Do as I say, not as I do." The Pharisees, at the time of Christ, were focused on their position in society and looked for the honor and privilege that their position provided. They focused on following the letter of the law, but struggled to allow the truth to be embedded in their hearts. The Lord has provided us with rules and guidelines to follow, but if one only focuses on following them externally, one misses out on the greater truth revealed to us through Christ. These rules, that direct our behavior, should also open our hearts. Take a moment this week to reflect on your faith. Ask God to open your heart to the meaning behind the guidelines, and pray they will bring you closer to God.

The First State at the Front: WWI and the Road to Victorious Peace

New Exhibition Opens November 17

Wilmington, DE – The Delaware Historical Society will open a new exhibition on November 17, 2017, titled The First State at the Front: WWI and the Road to Victorious Peace. The exhibition will run through 2018. Commemorating the centennial of the U.S. entry into World War I, the exhibition explores the experiences and sacrifices of Delawareans at war and on the home front, featuring many of the Delaware Historical Society's rich collections, including a soldier's muddy boots and garrison cap, a flag from a Gold Star family, letters to loved ones, photographs, scrapbooks, victory medals, and a wealth of wartime propaganda posters. One of the highlights of the exhibition is an invitation to a welcome home event in Wilmington for returning soldiers, celebrating the "victorious peace" that inspired the exhibition's title.

Visitors will be transported to 1917 as they explore differing attitudes towards the United States' entry into World War I, the experience of African American soldiers, and the many organizations and activities at home that supported the war effort abroad. Individually, these items tell fascinating stories about Delawareans living through a war that awakened them to a new global reality. Together, they paint a broader picture that speaks to the very human cost of war.

Hours: Wednesday-Saturday, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Admission: Adults $6.00; Seniors (65+)/Military/Student(with i.d.) $5.00; Children (3-18) $4.00
