STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURES: Like the sower in today's Gospel, I scatter as seed my gifts of time, talent, and resources; and I trust that, by God's grace and in God's time, these small gifts of myself may grow and flourish and help to bring about the Kingdom of God.

THOUGHTS FROM FATHER TED: The observance of the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ has given me an opportunity to think about something that has concerned me for some time. Far too often, I hear someone make a comment that they have received the “wine” or they are ministers of the “wine”. Calling the Precious Blood the “wine” should not be heard among us. If we truly believe that the wine we bring to the altar becomes the Blood of Christ, why are people so reluctant to call it what it truly is? The very use of the words, “the Precious Blood” or “the Blood of Christ” is a statement of faith. We must be bold enough to speak what we believe. If one does not believe that we truly receive the Blood of Christ, then that person should refrain from receiving communion or from serving as a Eucharistic Minister. The Eucharist is the most precious gift God could give us. It is the Body and Blood of His Son. Let us all learn to appreciate this marvelous gift and to receive the Eucharist with great devotion and gratitude.
