THOUGHTS FROM FATHER TED: “If Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins...” (1 Cor 15:17) This brief statement from the biblical writings of St. Paul teaches us how important the resurrection is for our salvation. That is why Easter is such a grand celebration. It is also why every Sunday is meant to be a “little Easter”. We must always keep mind that because Christ rose from the dead we have the hope of rising from our sinful condition to the glory of eternal life. The appearances of Jesus on Easter Sunday and during the days before His ascension into heaven and his bodily manifestation at the Transfiguration foretell what our glorified bodies will be like after the final judgment at the end of time. Our annual Easter celebration and our weekly celebration on Sundays are meant to renew within us the hope we have of eternal glory. Fr. Ted Skalsky

PRAYER AND ACTION is a 5-day mission trip that takes place within Southwest Kansas. Participants stay at the host parish in simple accommodations; prepare their own meals; join the parish for daily Mass; and serve local families that are in need. Typical services include painting, minor repairs, house and yard cleaning, etc and is carried out for Catholics and non-Catholics alike.

If you would like to take a group of students from your parish, or if you are an individual who is interested in helping out with this important mission, please check out our website for more information and the on-line registration forms. (www.dcyouth.org/prayer-action)

The participants – college students, high school students, and adult chaperones – grow by putting their faith directly into action, and practice the Christian lifestyle of “prayer without ceasing” (1Thessalonians 5:1)

VOCATION VIEWS: What stones are being moved away so you can be a minister of the Gospel? Consider inviting someone to be a priest, sister, or brother. Spread the good news: “Jesus is risen!” (John 20:1-9) If you think God is calling you to priesthood or to consecrated life, visit our website at www.dcdiocese.org/vocations.

DIVINE MERCY PRAYER SERVICE: Sunday, April 28, is Divine Mercy Sunday. We are planning a Prayer Service at 5:00 p.m. in Meade to celebrate the Divine Mercy that Our Lord gives to us! Pope Saint John Paul II desired that we celebrate the Divine Mercy each year on the Sunday after Easter. We will have a short service which will consist of songs, two brief scripture readings, the Divine Mercy Chaplet and benediction. Please join us in prayer! Each of us must have the mercy of God if we are to enjoy eternal life. We cannot earn or deserve God's mercy. It is always an undeserved gift.

WORD OF LIFE BULLETIN QUOTE: "Those who die in God's grace and friendship live forever with Christ. Heaven is not an abstract idea, but a true and lasting relationship with God that is beyond all earthly description and understanding. We look forward to the resurrection of the dead and everlasting life by preparing now, in hope, for our passage from this life into eternal life." USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, "Catholic Considerations for Our Earthly Passing
