Welcome to our parish...we are a community founded in a spirit of unity to serve our God through loving HIM and one another, always!

Dear Parishioners,

It is so hard to believe it is the end of September and Christmas is just three months from today!

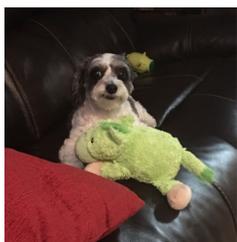

I believe the sound system is finally working well with all the recent upgrades and repairs. It was a long project that included finding out the company had installed the new speakers upside down. That is why the sound was bouncing all over the first three weeks. But it is installed properly now. Thanks for your patience! Luckily my dad always taught me to not pay for anything until you are happy with it! The company will continue to work with us to make sure the sound is the best it can be. Please remember, if you still cannot hear well we have hearing devices available for individuals. Just ask an usher at Mass.

Coming up the next two weekends are two exciting weddings: Our former youth minister Chris Kelley will marry his fiancé Alex at St. Charles in Parma on October 2, and our music director Kyle will marry his fiancé, Molly on October 8 at St. Mary in Mentor. Fr. Scott and I will be in attendance at both celebrations and look forward to praying with and celebrating the beauty of marriage with these two great guys and their brides. They are good men, and I know will make great husbands. Please keep them in your prayers.

Our Women's Fellowship will be hosting a day of retreat on October 8 for women of the parish and the community. More information and sign up forms are available in the Information Center of the Church. Also, we are starting a new series for women. It is a series called Walking with Purpose that allows women to join other women in exploring their faith, the Scriptures, and everyday life. It is for women of all ages. I encourage women of the parish to give strong consideration to joining in on this series. Several of our parishioners have done it elsewhere and really enjoyed it.

Make it a great week. See you in Church!

Peace,
Fr. John

WAGS invites all his buddies (Dogs, Cats, Birds, Turtles, & other animals) and their masters to the Annual Blessing of Animals on Sunday, October 2 at 1:00 pm in front of the Church!

Mark Your Calendar Listening Sessions with Fr. John & Fr. Scott

September 28 from 12:30—1:30 pm for parishioners aged 60 & Up in the Church
October 21 from 7:00—8:30 pm for parishioners aged 18—35 in the Upper Hall
November 18 from 7:00—8:30 pm for parishioners aged 36—59 in the Upper Hall

Fr. John and Fr. Scott invite you to come join us for a light meal and conversation about parish life. We are very interested in listening to your thoughts, ideas, concerns, questions, and comments about our parish and as the Shepherds, how we can help to continue to maintain and grow our vibrant parish community. We are both very anxious to listen to you and your views on the parish.

SRW and the Churches of Euclid come together for Celebration, Song and Fellowship

Representatives of SRW Parish have been meeting with members of Euclid's faith communities for the past several months. Seeing the importance this body plays in the community, Mayor Kirsten Holzheimer-Gail had requested – and organized – meetings for the purpose of support and unity. This has resulted in the committee planning their first Ecumenical Service, being held on Sunday, September 25, 2016 from 6:00 pm – 7:30 pm at Cathedral Worship Center, 21601 Euclid Avenue, Euclid (216.738-BLESS - dial one S). The entire community is invited. A free-will offering of non-perishable food and financial donations will be taken and donated to the Euclid Hunger Center. Our parish has committed to providing baked-goods for the social following the event. If you are able to donate an item, please call the parish office at 216.731.1515. You will be able drop off your donation at church the weekend of the event. Let's gather together as Euclid's faith community and join in celebration, song, and fellowship.

Women's Fellowship

"I will ask the Father, and he will give you another advocate to help you and be with you forever. . ." John 14:15. How wonderful is THAT! Find out just how wonderful, and how to access that Advocate. "Let Your Spirit Soar"! Make your reservations ASAP with Pam Mignona 440.241.3917 or Marcia Granito 216.570.7667 for our Women's Renewal" Saturday, October 8 - 7:45 am-3:30 pm in the Upper Hall. All are welcome.

SS. Robert & William Catholic School

Website: www.srwschool.cc

This school year we start a series in which each staff member of the school reflects on his/her mission and purpose of Catholic Education: This week Mrs. Patti Pfriem, our Pre-School teacher reflects on her role in our school.

I firmly believe that each child has a tremendous potential for growth: spiritually, physically, emotionally/socially, and academically. Therefore, the pre-school environment is prepared in such a way that each child can reach his/her potential at his/her own pace. In pre-school, not only do the children feel the love of God, but they also learn how to love others outside of their family. I help guide them into developing effective relationships with their peers and adults in the classroom. Many times, this means helping them to recognize emotions and how to respond to them in a healthy way. I also provide the foundations for academic success, recognizing that children learn in different ways. The pre-school student is not a miniature grade schooler or adult, but developmentally is a unique learner with great potential. You will not see a lot of papers come home, because that is not the best way for a pre-school child to learn. Pre-schoolers need to do, to touch, to listen, to move; they need to use all of their senses. The prepared environment of the classroom and the gentle guidance of the teacher allow for all of this, setting the stage for each child's future success.

I acknowledge that parents are the first and foremost teachers of their children. It is my desire to partner with you in making your child be the best that he/she can be! I look forward to working together!

As always thank you for your support of our school. Feel free to join us every Tuesday at 8:00 am for all school Mass.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING ADULT EDUCATION SESSIONS

In the book of Genesis we come to know that God is our creator and the supreme being of all; but he gave us dominion over the earth and asked us to live in community with one another. The Scriptures and rich Tradition of the Church offer some key insights into how we exercise our dominion over the earth while at the same time respecting our role as being God's children. In this year of the U.S. Presidential election, we felt it would be good to focus on the core teachings of the Church in regard to the following topics. We will not be discussing politics at these sessions, but instead the significant topics of LIFE and how to respect and support each and every person from conception until natural death. We invite you to join us each Wednesday at 6:30 pm in the Church. Please RSVP to the Parish Office or email to info@srweuclid.cc.
