Welcome to our parish...we are a community founded in a spirit of unity to serve our God through loving HIM and one another, always!

FJB's BLOG

Dear Parishioners,

It is 6 months until Christmas! Is your shopping started? Haha! It is nice to be in the summer months of relaxing and enjoying the beautiful weather and outdoors. Thank you so much to all those who keep the parish grounds and our flower beds looking so nice.

Thank you so much to all who made Vacation Bible School such a success! It was a great week filled with prayer, fun, and new friendships. We have a wonderful group of staff and volunteers who put this week on. Thank you also to all who made our Warrior Golf Outing such a huge success. Thank you to the Cabin Restaurant for hosting the dinner. This great event supports our LIFETEEN and EDGE ministries which benefit our parishioners in grades 6—12. Speaking of EDGE and LIFETEEN, for the past few years we partnered with St. John of the Cross for this ministry. Fr. Sal, the pastor at St. John of the Cross, reached out to me in May to let me know that, based on the needs of their parish, he and his parish felt it was in their best interest to go in a different direction with youth ministry. It is no reflection on our program or our parish. Therefore as of July 1, EDGE and LIFETEEN will be based entirely out of our parish and Kate Fraser will be SRW's youth minister full time. However, we will retain the name EUCLID LIFETEEN so that all members of our community, regardless of parish or religious affiliation, feel they can be a part of the ministry. There are a lot of great things happening with our youth!

One of my commitments to the parish has been to keep a few of the doors unlocked in the Church during the day so that people can stop in and pray. Almost every day I see people stopping in our church to pray and/or light a candle. However, our candle money boxes keep being broken into. The thieves get very little money because we empty them daily. However, we have purchased two new "safes" to deposit the money into when you donate for a candle. They are near the candles in the back of church. If you light candles elsewhere in the church, please take the money to the safes in the back. They aren't terribly attractive, but in the fall, Pat Fink, our facilities director will build nice wood cabinets around them.

Make it a great week. See you in Church.

Peace, Fr. John

Musing from Mike

By Seminarian Mike Feldtz, Summer Intern

Welcome to Ordinary Time! Despite the Church starting back into Ordinary Time just after Pentecost Sunday, we celebrate two Sunday feasts. The feasts of the Most Holy Trinity and the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ are both very important feasts that remind us of the unfathomable level of God's love for the whole world and us. Currently, I am reading a short, yet classic book on prayer; so I thought it would be nice to briefly mention "Adoration" as the first prayer form. Eventually, I would like to share the other three forms of prayer, but this first week let's talk adoration.

Fr. Raoul Plus, S.J. states, "We may pray to adore, to give thanks, to implore pardon, or to ask for the graces we need." In adoration, we are not concerned with ourselves, as in the last three forms of prayer; rather we move out of ourselves and think of God alone. We often think of a relational-bond, where the husband adores his wife, and the wife adores her husband. One adores the other, to the point of praise. When we stop to take in the depth of God's loving mercy, we adore.

Echoing our brief reflections on the Feast of Corpus Christi, I again want to invite you to spend time in our Adoration Chapel with Jesus ~ simply in adoration. When we sit with Jesus in amazement of God's deep love for us, we are praying in adoration, as we simply adore.

Mark your calendars!

Come celebrate these 60th Anniversaries

Do you have the gift of hospitality? Do you like to feed, nourish, and care for others? Are you looking for an opportunity to serve our parish in this capacity? Please consider joining the Father Solanus Casey Hospitality Ministry. We have a wonderful group of folks who are willing to welcome you aboard! Men, women, young people--all are welcome! While the skill sets of cooking and baking are appreciated, they are not necessary for you to participate. We willingly accept store-bought or bakery-bought items or other donations of time, talent, and assistance. Please contact the Church office, Rita Burke, (216.289.4635) or Garth Wadleigh (440.319.0762) to be added to the group.

The Social Hospitality Ministry Group, previously known as 'Martha and Mary Hospitality', has been renamed to "The Father Solanus Casey Hospitality Ministry". According to the Solanus Casey Center website, Father Solanus Casey "had faithfully served the people of Detroit, MI, Huntington, IN, New York City and Yonkers, NY by providing soup for the hungry, kind words for the troubled, and a healing touch for the ill. Wherever he served, people would line up for blocks for a moment with Fr. Solanus." It is the goal of the group not only to provide food and drink, but kind words and a welcoming spirit to all.
