From the Pastor: Friday was the feast day of St. Peter Claver, SJ. His statue is located over the Epistle Side Altar (the right side of the church if you are facing the main altar). He was born in 1581 in Catalonia, Spain to a distinguished family and later joined the Jesuits. While he was studying for the priesthood, he met Brother Alphonse Rodriguez who instilled a concern for the souls of the African slaves. In 1610, he was assigned to New Granada a Spanish colony (comprised of parts of present day Panama and Columbia) never returning to his native Spain. He was ordained in 1615 and spent the remainder of his life in the port city of Cartagena where he met the slave ships bringing food, water, medicine and clothing. He said: "We must speak to them with our hands, before we try to speak to them with our lips". After attending to their material needs, he would teach them about Christ offering them the consolations of eternal life. St. Peter spent
