From the Pastor: The Trinity is a mystery. We know that this doctrine is summarized as Three Persons in One God and we have heard that St. Patrick used the shamrock to illustrate it. St. Augustine was the Bishop of Hippo in North Africa from 395-430. He wrote many spiritual and theological treatises that continue to be read and studied such as Confessions (an account of his earlier life) and The City of God. He also wrote a lengthy book: On the Trinity in which he attempted to give a complete and understandable explanation of the Trinity. He worked on it for approximately thirty years and was frustrated with what he had written. So...he was walking by the seashore one day contemplating and trying to understand the mystery of the Holy Trinity when he saw a small boy running back and forth from the water to a spot on the seashore. The boy was using a sea shell to carry the water from the ocean and place it into a small hole in the sand. The Bishop of Hippo

Solemnity of the

approached him and asked, "My boy, what are doing?" "I am trying to bring all the sea into this hole," the boy replied with a sweet smile. "But that is impossible, my dear child, the hole cannot contain all that water" said Augustine. The boy paused in his work, stood up, looked into the eyes of the Saint, and replied, "It is no more impossible than what you are trying to do – comprehend the immensity of the mystery of the Holy Trinity with your small intelligence." The Saint was absorbed by such a keen response from that child, and turned his eyes from him for a short while. When he glanced down to ask him something else, the boy had vanished. Some say that it was an Angel sent by God to teach Augustine a lesson on pride in learning. Others affirm it was the Christ Child Himself who appeared to the Saint to remind him of the limits of human understanding before the great mysteries of our Faith. The quotation is a modern rendering by Marian Horvat of the story told in The Golden Legend (1298) by Jacobus da Varagine. On a personal note, I remember being taught about St. Augustine and the Trinity and the Christ Child when I was in the 1st grade. Thank you Sr. Walter Mary.
