From the Pastor: Last Saturday, Fr. Solanus Casey was beatified. Fr. Solanus was born in Wisconsin in 1870 and died in Detroit in 1957. Because of his difficulty with the academic work in the seminary, he was ordained as a sacerdos simplex, allowed only to say Mass and not to preach or hear confessions. He was sought after by the sick due to the cures attributable to his intercession. The following is excerpted from the National Catholic Register:
"When my mother was born, Father Solanus visited my grandmother in the hospital and told her to name her Dolores, for the seven dolorous [sufferings] of the Blessed Mother," Beth said. Dolores grew up and married and after a difficult labor for their second child, the doctor told her never to have more children or she would end up in a wheelchair. Dolores was devastated, because she wanted a large family. "My grandmother asked Father Solanus to visit her," Beth said.
"Dolores, why are you crying?" he asked when he walked into her hospital room. When he heard why, he told her not to worry. "You will have five more children and not end up in a wheelchair," Father Solanus said. And so it was.
 Fr. Solanus is an example of what St. Paul meant when he wrote: ...
God chose the weak of the world to shame the strong...
 1 Corinthians 1:27b
