difference by the way you choose to live it. Put hope in a future in which God will be all and love will consume your spirit. Choose life, not the darkness of pettiness and greed. St. Therese knew the difference love makes by allowing love to be the statement she made each day of her life.

Christmas Angel Tree – Sacred Heart Parish will continue our tradition of the Angel Tree of Love. We are not ready to put the tree up now, however it is time to start gathering names of individuals and families who may be facing a difficult time during the holiday season. Please refer the names and contact phone numbers to the Parish Office 717-637-2721 or to Melanie Stonesifer 717-632-8761. We will be remembering our shut-ins and we will also be collecting gifts for New Hope Ministries. More details will be coming, such as needs, collection dates, whether to wrap or not to wrap, and when to expect to see the tree!

The Second Collection this weekend, is World Mission Sunday, Propagation of Faith Membership.

Congratulations to our Parishioners Brandon Noel and Chelsea McSherry who were married here Saturday. May God bless them as they begin their new lives together as husband and wife.

This weekend we welcome the newest member into our Parish family through the Sacrament of  Baptism Zipora Diane Aguilar, daughter of Edward and Sara (Smith) Aguilar. Congratulations to the new family!

Pastors Column: A continuation of Fr. John F. Russell, O. Carm.'s description of the "little way" of St. Therese: In living out her life of faith she sensed that everything that she was able to accomplish came from a generous love of God in her life. She was convinced that at the end of her life she would go to God with empty hands. Why? Because all was accomplished in union with God. Catholics and other Christians have been attracted to St. Therese's style. Her "little way" seems to put holiness of life within the reach of ordinary people. Live out your days with confidence in God's love for you. Recognize that each day is a gift in which your life can make a
