Pastors Column: St. Justin Martyr (100-165 A.D.) was one of the earliest Christian writers. He wrote a series of explanations of Christian doctrine for Roman officials. He wrote the following explanation of the Eucharist:

No one may share the Eucharist with us unless he believes that what we teach is true, unless he is washed in the regenerating waters of baptism for the remission of his sins, and unless he lives in accordance with the principles given us by Christ.

We do not consume the Eucharistic bread and wine as if it were ordinary food and drink, for we have been taught that as Jesus Christ our Savior became a man of flesh and blood by the power of the Word of God, so also the food that our flesh and blood assimilates for its nourishment becomes the flesh and blood of the incarnate Jesus by the power of his own words contained in the prayer of thanksgiving.

The apostles, in their recollections, which are called gospels, handed down to us what Jesus commanded them to do. They tell us that he took bread, gave thanks and said: Do this in memory of me. This is my body. In the same way he took the cup, he gave thanks and said: This is my blood. The Lord gave this command to them alone. Ever since then we have constantly reminded one another of these things.

All are welcome to attend the May Devotions on here on Sundays at 7:00p.m. There are blue pages in the Flower Book to designate flowers for our May Altar. The Book is located in back of Church in front of the Visitor's confessional.

Sacred Heart Day at the York Revolution game will be held Sunday, June 2nd. The game starts at 1:00, but our choir will be singing before the first pitch. Tickets may be purchased online. Children under 12 will receive a wristband at the park which gives them free admittance to the play area.

An anonymous donor has paid for tickets for all choir members and all altar servers. Please sign the sheet in the back and indicate choir or altar server. We have also contracted a bus that will pick up at the church at about 11:15 a.m. and drop passengers at the stadium and then will pick up after the game and return to the church. Church Update! You will notice that the decorative trim around the front entrance to the church is being replaced. Over the years, it has severely rotted and it was determined that it would better to replace it rather than repair it. The replacement will be installed over the course of this week, weather permitting. It will be a replica of what was there and will be made of African mahogany, a very durable wood. The replacement was made locally by Ivan Dutterer Woodworking in Hanover and is being installed by Conewago Enterprises.
