A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"But if he turns from the wickedness he has committed, and does what is right and just, he shall preserve his life, Since he has turned away from all the sins he has committed, he shall surely live...when John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him, but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him."

We are all called to conversion, to turn away from what is wrong or evil, and turn to what is good and beautiful. Unfortunately, some believe that conversion is an event of a single moment. God's grace inspires or impels us to change and do what is right and just. The one shining moment comes and takes over. But for most of us, conversion is a lifelong process. We constantly are on guard to avoid what is evil, resist what impedes holiness, and continue the struggle as we 'hang in there.' We all experience that fight. Maybe we can use another approach. Conversion is not so much a turning from, but a turning to. We are summoned to turn to Christ, His life, the life of grace. It is whom we seek that is important. When we keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, the obstacles and barrier are lessened and the direction of our lives becomes clearer. When we realize that Jesus has His eyes on us and is seeking us, we come to THE shining moment.

UNA FRESCA PERSPECTIVA DE LAS LECTURAS DOMINICALES

SU PALABRA HOY por el Reverendo William J. Reilly

“Y cuando el malvado se aparta del mal que ha cometido, para practicar el derecho y la justicia, él mismo preserva su vida. El ha abierto los ojos y se ha convertido de todas las ofensas que había cometido: por eso, seguramente vivirá... Juan vino a ustedes por el camino de la justicia y no creyeron en él; en cambio, los publicanos y las prostitutas creyeron en él. Pero ustedes, ni siquiera al ver este ejemplo, se han arrepentido ni han creído en él.”

Estamos llamados a transformarnos, a dejar lo que es nocivo y malo, y volcarnos a lo que es bueno y bello. Desafortunadamente, algunos creen que la conversión es un evento o que se lleva a cabo en un instante. La gracia de Dios nos inspira o impulsa a cambiar y a hacer lo que está bien y es justo. Ese brillante momento llega y se apodera de nosotros. Para mucha gente, la conversión es un proceso largo. Estamos constantemente en guardia para evitar el mal, evitando lo que impide la santidad y continuamos la lucha y nos aguantamos. Todos experimentamos esa pelea. Pero quizá podamos usar otra estrategia. La conversión no es tanto el dar la espalda sino volcarse hacia algo. Estamos llamados a volcarnos a Cristo, Su vida, la vida de gracia. Es a quien buscamos lo que es importante. Cuando mantenemos nuestros ojos fijos en Jesús, los obstáculos y barreras se minimizan y la dirección de nuestras vidas se aclara. Cuando nos damos cuenta de que Jesús tiene Sus ojos en nosotros y nos busca, llegamos a ESE brillante momento.

2017 Bishop's Annual Appeal

In Giving, We Receive

The services provided by our Catholic Charities agencies are too long to list in our bulletin but here are just a few: emergency housing for people in extreme poverty, outpatient and residential substance abuse treatment, group homes for disabled adults, outreach to veterans who are homeless, family counseling, etc. Your gift to the Bishop's Annual Appeal helps bring this important work to life. In fact, Catholic Charities receives the largest percentage of Appeal funding. Your help is needed to continue providing this urgent care. Please be as generous as you are able to the 2017 Bishop's Annual Appeal. For your convenience, you can make an online gift or pledge at www.2017appeal.org. Thank you!
