June 24 - Nativity of St. John the Baptist

Since June 24 falls on a Sunday this year, the Church has the opportunity for a more intense celebration of the birth of John the Baptist, who is often described as the last of the Old Testament prophets and the bridge between Judaism and Christianity. More commonly, John is known as the "precursor" of our Lord Jesus Christ. All the Gospels report John's basic message: Repent, the kingdom is near at hand. One greater than I is coming.

Though he was a wandering preacher who dressed in camel skins and ate grasshoppers, John's legacy is one of true royalty. His origins are similar to those foretold by God through the prophet Isaiah: "You are my servant, he said to me, Israel through whom I show my glory" (Isaiah 49:3). John's humility--"I am not he"--was surpassed only by that of his Lord Jesus, the humble servant who followed. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Mother Therese of Jesus, O. Carm.

MOTHER THERESE, known in the world as Anna Marie Lindenberg, was born of Joseph and Marianna Lindenberg, in Muenster, Westphalia, on May 20, 1877, the youngest of four children. Four days later, on May 24, she was brought to the Cathedral of Muenster for baptism.

At eight years of age, she accompanied her mother to the Convent of the Sisters of Our Lady of Charity. Here she witnessed her cousin's reception into the Congregation of the Good Shepherd Sisters. The Clothing Ceremony made a deep impression on the little girl and from that moment she conceived an ardent desire to give herself as a consecrated bride to the Saviour

Anna Marie was an excellent pupil. Even at an early age, she possessed an extraordinary skill for memorizing. And we would like to mention here that after fifty years or more, she could recite with ease a very long poem which she had been called upon to deliver before the Emperor of Germany upon his visit to her childhood school.

After her arrival in the United States, she lost no time in learning the English Language, and, remarkable to relate, in a very short time, she could write and speak it fluently.

She entered Carmel on the Feast of Saint Teresa of Avila, October 15, 1913, taking the name of Sister Therese of Jesus.

On May 6, 1914, the feast of Saint John before the Latin Gate, she had the ineffable joy of receiving the Holy Habit of Carmel from Bishop of the diocese. About a year later, on July 16, 1915, the Feast of the Incomparable Patroness of the Order, Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Sister Therese of Jesus was permitted to pronounce her Holy Vows.

In the Divine Plan, however, it was the zealous General of the Carmelites, the Most Reverend Father Elias P. Magennis, O. Carm., who was destined to undertake the leadership in the vast enterprise of expanding the vine of the Carmelite nuns of the Ancient Observance to the West.

It was on October 15, 1930, the feast of the seraphic virgin of Carmel, Saint Teresa of Avila, that permission was granted by the Sacred Congregation of Religious, whereby the Reverend Mother Therese of Jesus and Sister Clement Mary of the Guardian Angel were canonically commissioned to found a Calced Carmelite Monastery of Papal Enclosure in America.

On May 22, 1931, the two Carmelites motored to Allentown. Even at this crucial point, Mother Therese's humor was at hand, and she remarked to her dear companion, that it was quite fitting that an undertaker, from Allentown, should have the pleasure of bringing the Sisters to their new home.

On Easter Tuesday morning, April 11, 1939, at about ten-fifteen o'clock, barely three hours after Mother's reception of Holy Communion during the conventual Mass, a heart attack broke the frail ties that bound to earth this zealous spouse of the Most Blessed Trinity. Her death was hastened, perhaps, by her untiring zeal in the holy service of her Lord and Master, Whose greater honor and glory were the mainspring of her entire spiritual life.

Loving hands placed the dear body in the casket prepared for her, and she lay in state, behind the cloister grille, in the Monastery choir, facing the Main Altar. Hundreds of friends and benefactors, men, women, children, priests, and religious, filed past the grille window to pay a last farewell to Mother Therese. Without any ado, those who knew her during life, were inspired to pass through the grating rosaries, crosses, medals, pictures, and other items, to be touched to her venerable body, that they might be kept by them as precious souvenirs.

The body of Mother Therese was exhumed in 2001 and found to be intact, 63 years after her burial. Her body was then moved to a marble tomb at the Monastery.

Mother Therese of Jesus, pray for us!

Prayer to Mother Therese of Jesus, O. Carm.

MY LORD JESUS CHRIST, deign to make known Thy gentle spouse, Mother Therese of Jesus; to extend the Reign of the Most Holy Trinity in the souls of men; to increase the Glory of Thy Immaculate Mother Mary. Grant to Mother Therese, we beseech Thee, according to Thy Holy Will, the honors of the altar. Amen

Pray three (3) times the Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be in Honor of the Most Holy Trinity.

REFLECTIONS FROM CATHERINE DOHERTY

The Two Holiest of Hearts

I wonder if we understand what the Sacred heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary are all about? Quite a few people say, "oh yes, the Sacred Heart used to be associated with devotions of the nine First Fridays, and so on." They are a little hazy about it.

Just let your mind drift; let it enter the mystery of Christ's heart. You will find a strange, incredible heart that God accepted when he became human, a heart that beats forever, in a manner of speaking. When Christ's heart was pierced, the Church was born. The Church, reviled by so many, . Yet where the Church is, He is. And with her, Christ stands; and His heart comforts and cures the Church.

He stands there like a beggar, begging the pennies of our love. How many pennies have we put in today? Yesterday? He is a beggar for our love and solace. His beating heart spells love for us!

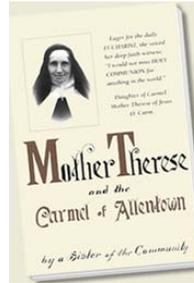

That is why on certain days we bow low and thank God for His faithfulness toward us. And the humble little girl who became the Mother of God- Mary-we know that she is the Mother of humility, simple, and still. As He lay in her womb and His heart began to beat, she was the first to hear it. And her heart answered His.

So we have before us a mystery—the heart of Mary and the Heart of Christ—both immaculate, both of beauty unsurpassed. What more could you desire, except to give yourself totally to these two hearts, especially the one of God!

HOLY INNOCENTS ROSARY

Holy Innocents is proud to introduce our own custom made Rosary by Ghirelli Rosaries in Italy. The beautiful, high quality Rosary is comprised of red Mother of Pearl lucite beads representing the blood shed by the Holy Innocents, Martyrs. The metal used is in antique silver finish. The crucifix is designed after the highly venerated "Return Crucifix" and is inscribed with "Shrine & Parish Church of the Holy Innocents New York City" on the back. The centerpiece features Our Mother of Perpetual Help and the façade of our beautiful church with the year of establishment. The Our Father medals feature representations of the most beloved devotions here at Holy Innocents and are modeled after the images in the church: the Tridentine Latin Mass, the Infant of Prague, the unborn represented by Our Lady of Guadalupe, and St. Anthony of Padua. On the backs of those medals is an image of a candle representing the many Vigil Lights lit here over the years. Each Rosary comes in a beautiful full color custom gift box and the price per Rosary is $40.00 plus sales tax. Stop by the Parish Office to see a sample of this one-of-a-kind Rosary exclusive to Holy Innocents.

The Shrine to the Unborn

Blessed by Cardinal O'Connor on December 28, 1993

*The Shrine is dedicated in Memory of the Children
Who Have Died Unborn*

We invite you to name your child(ren) and provide the opportunity to have your baby's name inscribed in our "Book of Life".

Often children who have died before birth have no grave or headstone, and sometimes not even a name. At The Church of The Holy Innocents, we invite you to name your child(ren) and to have the opportunity to have your baby's name inscribed in our "BOOK OF LIFE". Here, a candle is always lit in their memory. All day long people stop to pray. On the first Monday of every month, our 12:15pm Mass is celebrated in honor of these children and for the comfort of their families. We pray that you will find peace in knowing that your child(ren) will be remembered at the Shrine and honored by all who pray here.

We will inscribe the names of babies who have died before and at birth in our Book of Life, and as always, we invite you to visit the Shrine if you are in New York City.

SUBWAY ROSARY
