FIRST SUNDAY OF AUGUST - August 5th
FEAST OF GOD THE ETERNAL FATHER

"I have never lost confidence in Our Eternal Father."
-St. Marguerite d'Youville

A BRIEF EXCERPT FROM THE LIFE OF CANADIAN ST. MARGUERITE d'YOUVILLE (1701-1771) "The Mother of Universal Charity"

Marguerite was born on October 15, 1701 at Varennes, Quebec and was baptized the next day at St. Anne's parish church.

On November 21, 1737, Marguerite took a poor blind woman into her home thus laying the foundation for hospitality in the Religious Community she was to be Foundress of, the Grey Nuns of Montreal. Seeing Marguerite selflessly caring for the poor, inspired three women to join her. On December 31, 1737, Catherine Cusson, Louise Thaumur la Source, and Catherine Demers joined Marguerite. They consecrated themselves to God, promising secretly to serve Jesus in His poor. They placed their work of helping the poor under the protection of Our Lady, and consecrated themselves to God, to serve the poor and most destitute members of her Divine Son, till the end of their lives.

On February 20, 1741, Sr. Catherine Cusson died of tuberculosis at the age of 32. During the three short years of her religious life, she was distinguished by her charity to the poor and by her exact observance of the rule. To Marguerite, the loss of this spiritual daughter was as painful as that of her natural children had been. And even while the weight of Sr. Catherine's death weighed in the hearts of the nuns, another threatened loss of far greater weight sent the Sisters to their knees in urgent prayer. Fr. Normant, their Superior, had become so dangerously ill that any hope of his recovery was almost abandoned. Pounding on the doors of Heaven, Marguerite solemnly promised that if Fr. Normant were restored to health, she would have a votive light burned before the Blessed Sacrament every year on the Feast of the of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary - a feast of deep significance to the Sulpicians. Moreover she promised to have a special painting made of the Eternal Father by an artist in France. This was a promise that would be quite costly for the struggling community, but no sacrifice was too great for the life of their beloved director. Fr. Normant recovered his health - and since then, a beautiful painting of the Eternal Father, painted by Challe in 1741, hangs in the vast community room in the Motherhouse in Montreal.

REFLECTION FROM CATHERINE DOHERTY

Our Teacher in Loving

This is the month of Our Lady's Assumption. It is the month of Our Lady's love, the Mother of Fair Love, the Mother of God. Let us turn to her, and beg her with all our hearts, all our souls, all our strength to teach us how to love. Unless we do, we shall perish in the hate begotten by our fears and our lack of love.

Gentle Mother of God, virgin most powerful, terrible as an army in battle array, resplendent Spouse of the Spirit, humble daughter of God the Father Almighty, bend down your beautiful face and gather us up into your loving arms. Do not give us up; do not forsake us, even though so many of us hear not your voice that speaks so constantly to our generation.

Speak now in accents of love, in a whisper as gentle as a distant breeze singing in your trees, or in a mighty roll of thunder that can be heard to the ends of the earth.

Behold our deaf generation! Behold our blind millions! Look pityingly on us who neither hear the voice nor see the face of perfect Love! Behold and pity us.

Teach us how to love, Mother of Fair Love, so that we may lift up our hearts and walk upright once more, like men and women created in the image of Love, your Son.

--Where Love Is, God Is

MODESTY IN DRESS

Now that the warm weather is upon us, out of respect for Our Lord and for the edification of our neighbors, we ask that men and women, boys and girls appear in church modestly and respectfully dressed. Shorts, t-shirts, tank tops, halter tops, bare midriffs, strapless, off-the-shoulder, backless or low-cut dresses/tops or tight fitting clothes, beachwear do not fit the norm of Christian modesty or respect. Do not be an occasion of sin for someone else! Your cooperation is evidence of your love for Our Lord and for His Most Holy Mother and is greatly appreciated.

The Face of the Father

By Thomas W. Petrisko

An Exclusive Interview with Barbara Rose Centilli Concerning Her Revelations and Visions of God Our Father While there have been many private revelations given over the centuries to illuminate our Faith in God, many believe the reported dialogue between Barbara Centilli and God the Father to be a masterpiece of spirituality, something well beyond the norm. Theologians say the Centilli revelations truly tell of the love, mercy, and understanding our Heavenly Father has for all mankind, the call for His children to consecrate themselves to Him, and His passionate desire for a Feast Day in His honor to celebrate their return home to His loving arms and warm embrace.

HOLY INNOCENTS ROSARY

Holy Innocents is proud to introduce our own custom made Rosary by Ghirelli Rosaries in Italy. The beautiful, high quality Rosary is comprised of red Mother of Pearl Lucite beads representing the blood shed by the Holy Innocents, Martyrs. The metal used is in antique silver finish. The crucifix is designed after the highly venerated "Return Crucifix" and is inscribed with "Shrine & Parish Church of the Holy Innocents New York City" on the back. The centerpiece features Our Mother of Perpetual Help and the façade of our beautiful church with the year of establishment. The Our Father medals feature representations of the most beloved devotions here at Holy Innocents and are modeled after the images in the church: the Tridentine Latin Mass, the Infant of Prague, the unborn represented by Our Lady of Guadalupe, and St. Anthony of Padua. On the backs of those medals is an image of a candle representing the many Vigil Lights lit here over the years. Each Rosary comes in a beautiful full color custom gift box and the price per Rosary is $40.00 plus sales tax. Stop by the Parish Office to see a sample of this one-of-a-kind Rosary exclusive to Holy Innocents.

The Shrine to the Unborn

Blessed by Cardinal O'Connor on December 28, 1993

*The Shrine is dedicated in Memory of the Children
Who Have Died Unborn
We invite you to name your child(ren) and provide the opportunity to have your baby's name inscribed in our "Book of Life".*

Often children who have died before birth have no grave or headstone, and sometimes not even a name. At The Church of The Holy Innocents, we invite you to name your child(ren) and to have the opportunity to have your baby's name inscribed in our "BOOK OF LIFE". Here, a candle is always lit in their memory. All day long people stop to pray. On the first Monday of every month, our 12:15pm Mass is celebrated in honor of these children and for the comfort of their families. We pray that you will find peace in knowing that your child(ren) will be remembered at the Shrine and honored by all who pray here.

We will inscribe the names of babies who have died before and at birth in our Book of Life, and as always, we invite you to visit the Shrine if you are in New York City.

SUBWAY ROSARY
