TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29

Those who are humble will find favor with God. Everyone should realize that there is much we can learn from each other.

Even the most knowledgeable people need to be humble enough to know that they can still learn from others.

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a

The Hebrews are informed that they are not approaching an untouchable mountain etched with gloom and fear. Rather, they have neared "the city of the living God, Jerusalem." The Hebrews have approached a joyful gathering of angels, God our judge, and Jesus, who brought us a new covenant.

Gospel: Luke 14:1, 7-14

Jesus went to share a meal with one of the leading Pharisees when he noticed other guests competing for places of honor at the table. He warned that a guest who takes the place of honor may be asked to move to the lowest place. Yet a guest who takes the lowest place is honored when a better position is offered by their host. He then added, "He who humbles himself will be exalted."

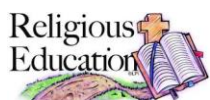

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts. Humble yourself the more, the greater you are, and you will find favor with God... Rather when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled the lame, the blind, blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you."

The Hebrew bible offers countless examples of the virtues we seek for our Christian living. An understanding heart, humility, the fruits of the Holy Spirit offered by St. Paul. Jesus provided the beatitudes to assist us in forming a correct, mature conscience. Somehow, we seem to miss the point.

How sad as our society moves in the opposite direction. Pride, and the other capital sins, invade our lives and become the norm for the 'good life.' I tend to think only of myself. We are told we need this, buy a bigger one, you can't get along without it. I need to ask myself how well I got along without the internet, with my cell phone, or video game. These have entered the sphere of my life only recently. Sadly they replaced values, warmth, the gospel.

Pope Francis teaches us well, when we are to equip ourselves with mercy, kindness, forgiveness, and offer these same gifts to others. He suggests for our consideration to offer these gifts to the marginalized, the poor, the outcast. As I offer them to those in need, I offer them to the Lord Himself.

FIRST DAY OF CLASSES-- SEPTEMBER 11TH.

YOU MIGHT FIND IT SALE

Something Old Something New SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

Join your friends, neighbors and fellow parishioners in the church hall on Saturday September 24, 2016 from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm

If you would like a space/table, complete a vendor form found in the vestibules of the Church or call the rectory for more information.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED - PLEASE CALL MARIE REGINO 255-1374 IF YOU CAN HELP WITH THIS FUNDRAISER.

HELPING HANDS

We're collecting school supplies for children. Any donations of school supplies would be greatly appreciated. We're also in need of egg cartons. Please leave your donations in the Church vestibule or between the rear doors of the parish hall.

May God continue to bless you for all that you do for the less fortunate in our area.

As you may have noticed, the choir will sometimes sing a single verse of music over and over at Communion time. This is called Taizé' prayer. It was begun in Taizé' France in 1940 by Brother Roger who was in a monastic community. These short chants give the prayer a meditative character and make it possible for everyone to be actively engaged. So please sing with us to be doubly blessed!

Knights Corner:

Because of Labor Day, our next meeting will be Monday, September 12, at 7pm in the hall. Hope all can make it.

We will be selling the Charitable & Benevolent Program raffle tickets after the Masses. A $1 ticket has a grand prize of $25,000...2nd prize of $10,000....3rd prize of $5,000. Please see any member of the Knights of Columbus for tickets.

Members who have not picked up their tickets, please contact Ray 564-7867 or Steve 883-6384.

Anyone who would like to join the Knights, please contact Ray 564-7867 or Bill 883-0138.
