FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 6:1-7

During the early growth of the Church, the apostles realized that they needed more disciples in order to carry out effectively the ministry of the Church. The community selected seven men, one of whom was Stephen.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 2:4-9

Citing many uses of the word "stone" in the sayings of Jesus and in the Old Testament, Peter urges the Christians to be "living stones...an edifice of spirit."

Gospel: John 14:1-12

In this beautiful passage from the words of Jesus at the Last Supper, Jesus promises that he is preparing a place for the apostles. He tells them, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through me." When Philip asks Jesus to show them the Father, Jesus answers, "Whoever has seen me has seen the Father."

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"Brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, filled with the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint to this task, whereas we shall devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word... They presented these men to the apostles who prayed and laid hands on them."

The needs of the early church were not different from those of our day. The text from the Acts of the Apostles informs us of the call by the apostles and the acceptance of the deacons to respond and serve at table.

In many parts of our country men will be ordained to the diaconate and the priesthood as they are called to Holy Orders. The mission is the same, to serve and preach the word. The mandate is no different, but in the words of Pope Francis they are to go out to the marginalized and bring the word of Jesus to others.

How many of us just accept our ordained ministers, but how few of us promote vocations to the service of the church. How many of us affirm those who are in ministry and how few consider the call of the Lord, whether in ordained or ministry of service. Jesus, the way, and the truth and the life calls us as His disciples to minister and serve. What is He asking me to do?

MOTHER'S DAY

This Sunday is Mothers Day, a national, universal recognition of the women who gave us life and nurtured us. Our Lord Jesus Christ came into this world as a child born of a woman, Mary, His Mother. On this day, the Church honors Mary and all Mothers living and deceased.

Please pray for the children who received First Holy Communion on May 7:

KENDRA DEVINCENZI

ALEXANDER HOPPER

AIDEN JOHANSEN

EMMA LAROCCO

PATRICK LEMBO

SYDNEY LOWERY

OLIVIA MARTINO

VINCENT MILLER

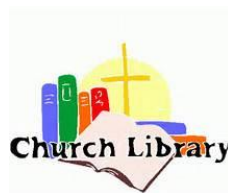

VICTORIA ROSE PERRY

NICOLE RIZZA

MEGAN WAGER

Our 9th Grade students will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation next Sunday, May 21st at 3:00 pm. Keep them and their families in your prayers.

We are looking for donations of children's book for our Church Library. Donations may be brought to the Church.

You dwell among us in your Body, the Church. Open our minds to become aware of you always. Let a book of spiritual reading open your mind to God. Visit our library soon and often. Books are accepted anytime. Thank you for your interest.
