

Meet Your St. Angela Merici Pastoral Council

Our Pastoral Council is here to serve you. If you have concerns, questions or suggestions, please do not hesitate to contact them. Contact information will be included in the bulletin.

Chris Agostinelli

Chris is the chairman of the Pastoral Council. He and his wife, Monica, have two children, Aiden, 6 and Annalise, 1. They have been members of the parish since 2008. Prior to the Pastoral Council, Chris was a member of the RCIA team from 2009-2012, where he was the Sponsor Chairman for three years. Chris is a Knight of Columbus, a Reader, and an Usher. Chris and Monica are also active members in Teams of Our Lady (TOOL), a spiritual married couples' movement. Chris' vision for the parish is to see the continuous growth and evolution of the parish community, both physically and spiritually, and to be an active part of an environment that will provide a place of faith, fellowship, spiritual growth and acts of service for others in need.

Jackie Burkhalter

Jackie and her husband, Cory, have two daughters, Mia and Ava. They have been parishioners since 2008. Jackie's ministries have included volunteering in Kid's Club and EDGE. She currently serves in our Baptism ministry, TOOL, and is a member of the "Continue the Vision" capital campaign team. Jackie's vision for St. Angela is to build a community of believers in which all groups, young and old, can come together to a place that provides total fulfillment in one's Catholic faith.

Tom Kircher

Tom, his wife of 26 years, Arlene, and daughter Kim, 24, have been parishioners at St. Angela since the PLC opened in September 2010. He is also a Reader at Masses, a member of our Knights of Columbus council, and together with Arlene, active in one of our TOOL groups. Seeing our future church sanctuary designed and built is Tom's greatest hope for the parish.

Yolanda Choates

Yolanda is honored to serve as a member of your Pastoral Council. She and her husband Meco have two sons, Bryton and Brandon. The Choates became parishioners in 2008 after moving to Sienna Plantation. In addition to serving on the Pastoral Council, Yolanda is a Reader and an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion. She and Meco also enjoy participating in TOOL. Her hope and prayer for our parish is that our parishioners continually strive to be a true reflection of our Lord Jesus Christ!

Please see other side for more bios

Photography:
Colleen Lastrapes

Meet Your St. Angela Merici Pastoral Council

Our Pastoral Council is here to serve you. If you have concerns, questions or suggestions, please do not hesitate to contact them. Contact information will be included in the bulletin.

Tom Mathew

Tom and his wife, Sanju, have 2 children, Milan, 6, and Mikheyla, 4. His family is privileged to be parishioners of St. Angela since 2010. Some of Tom's previous ministries include participating in a medical mission trip to Guatemala with members of the Sacred Hearth Co-Cathedral, helping to provide medical care for those unable to afford it and serving as an English teacher with the Learn English Ministry. Tom's hope for our parish is for our community to be one in Christ, filled with love and service to another. No matter what background we may come from, he knows that each of us has something to contribute to the mission of our parish.

Jill Menendez

Jill and her husband, Daniel have 3 children, Marlee, Dani and Miles. Jill and her family have been parishioners since it all began at the Plex. Jill enjoys being a member of the Parish Council tremendously. She was also a member of the first women's group lead by Molly McCarthy, our first Deacon Kevin's wife. Jill's vision for St. Angela Merici is to be a servant in helping to create a place where the physical, spiritual and emotional needs of the family can thrive.

Melwyn Machado

Melwyn and his wife Lidwin and daughter Sheryl have been parishioners at St. Angela Merici since 2010. Melwyn is a Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, a member of the Faith Formation team and of our Knights of Columbus council. Melwyn's vision is that together he and his family can live the parish mission, both welcoming and serving our community.

Gloria Mallett

Gloria and her husband Clarence have been married for 36 years. They are parents of two wonderful children, Alana and David Mallett, with one precocious grandson, Christopher Mallett. Gloria and Clarence have been blessed to be members of St. Angela Merici since 2008. During this period, Gloria has actively served as a Greeter, while both she and Clarence are currently members of The Meditation Group and TOOL. Her vision for the future is that we communicate our love of God to all through creative service that is relevant, supports dignity and evangelizes.

Please see other side for more bios

Photography:
Colleen Lastrapes