PASTOR’S COMMENTS

Borrowed from Paul Turner

Practicing Peace

Peace can be yours. It is hard to find peace in a busy life with many commitments, noisy neighbors, and angry streets. But peace can be yours.

Peace is as attainable as good health and good friendships. It requires work. But there is a formula. If you want good health you develop habits of eating and exercising. If you want good friends you work at relationships and practice selflessness. These goals require work, but they are within reach.

So is peace. St. Paul advises the Philippians to have no anxiety at all and to make their needs known to God. “Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.”

That’s it. Put anxiety away and make your requests known to God. If you have needs, do not dwell on them. Give them to God. Let God take it from there. Meanwhile, Paul says, think about what is true, honorable, just, pure, lovely, gracious, and excellent—not about what you are lacking. When you practice peace by thinking of peaceable things, peace can be yours.

No one decides what goes into your mouth except you. You can diet if you want to. No one decides what friends you have except you. You can make and break relationships. No one decides what goes into your mind except you. You can think about the things that bring peace, and peace can be yours.

Jesus I Trust In You

“By accepting the sufferings “offered” by life and allowed by God for our progress and purification, we spare ourselves much harder ones. We need to develop this kind of realism and, once and for all, stop dreaming of a life without suffering or conflict. That is the life of heaven, not earth. We must take up our cross and follow Christ courageously every day, the bitterness of that cross will sooner or later be transformed into sweetness.”

Are you or someone you know a victim of verbal, psychological or physical abuse? Domestic violence, which includes verbal and psychological abuse, impacts millions every year. Most suffer in silence and are threatened, fearful and embarrassed to reach out for help. Married people may feel confused about how the church might respond due to marital vows. The Office of Life and Family wants to raise awareness and provide support, information and resources for those struggling from abuse. Maybe you just want to talk! Please call 401-422-7833, ext. 218 or ext. 217.
