Fourth Sunday of Lent

March 11, 2018

Rejoice, Jerusalem,
and all who love her.

PASTOR’S COMMENTS
Borrowed from Paul Turner

Second Chance

You always have another chance. This is the good news of Lent and Easter. God knows our shortcomings. God knows our past. God knows our present inabilities. God knows where the future is headed—if we do not change.

Too often in life, people do not give us another chance. If you say or do something inappropriate to a person you’re dating, it may end the relationship right there. If you treat a customer disrespectfully, you may never see that person again. If you offend a perfect stranger while driving your car, you never have a chance to make it up. Too often you don’t get another chance.

And, sadly, death sometimes gets in the way. You had harsh words with a close friend or family member. You never made up. Now, the person you once loved is gone. You don’t have another chance—in this life.

But with God, you always have another chance. If you have sinned, God can forgive. If you sin again—and again—God will still forgive. We know this because God sent Christ into a world absorbed in sin.

The Letter to the Ephesians says, “God, who is rich in mercy, because of the great love he had for us, even when we were dead in our transgressions, brought us to life with Christ.”

This Lent, confess your sins and rejoice in Christ, who gives you another chance.

Fr. John

Jesus is always knocking at the door of our Hearts.It’s up to us to let Him in.

How does God speak? Through everything there is. Every thing every person every situation, is ultimately the Word. It tells me something and challenges me to respond. Each moment, with all that it contains, spells out the great “yes” in a new and unique way. By making my response, moment by moment, word by word, I myself am becoming the Word that God speaks in me and to me and through me.

SOME THOUGHTS FOR LENT AS WE FAST, PRAY, and give ALMS

Then the righteous will say to him in reply, "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and make you welcome, lacking clothes and clothe you? When did we find you sick or in prison and go to see you?" And the King will answer, "In truth I tell you, in so far as you did this to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me."

Matt. 25: 37-40

Do you wish to honor the body of Christ? Do not ignore Him when He is naked. Do not pay Him homage in church with silk vestments, only then to neglect Him outside where He is cold and ill-clad.

The One who said: "This is my body" is the same who said: "You saw me hungry and you gave me no food", and "Whatever you did to the least of my brothers you did also to me". What good is it if the Holy Table is loaded with golden chalices when your brother is dying of hunger?

Show honor by sharing your goods with the poor and by satisfying His hunger and then what is left you may adorn the altar as well.

St. John Chrysostom
